Survivors Tell Of Terror On Principessa Mafalda As Big Liner Goes Down

Believe Heroic Captain Went Down With Ship

No Reports Of Captain Of Sunken Italian Liner Being Rescued

LAST SEEN AT POST ON BRIDGE OF SHIP

Exact Figures On Loss Of Life Not Yet Available; Fear 68 Lost

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 27.—Captain Simone Gugli and many of his officers probably went down with their ship, the Principessa Mafalda, when the vessel foundered off the coast of Brazil Tuesday night, according to an announcement made by the Navigazione Generale Italiana, the ship's owners, today.

Officers of the Navigazione General Italiana stated they received many reports of Captain Gugli standing on the bridge of his sinking ship directing the work of rescuing the passengers and crew, but as yet they have not received any word of his rescue by any of the five ships that picked up survivors of the wreck.

Other officers who are still reported missing are Chief Engineer Scarbitth, First Officer Moresco and Ship Surgeon Dr. Figaroli.

Await Rescued

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 27.—Exact figures as to the dead and definite details concerning the cause of the disaster to the Italian steamer "Principessa Mafalda", were hoped for here today with the expected arrival of most of the rescue ships bearing survivors of the sunken liner.

The Mafalda went down about 100

RIO De Janeiro, Oct. 27.—First accounts of the sea tragedy which on Tuesday evening sent more than 1000 passengers aboard the Italian liner Principessa Mafalda rushing in terror to the lifeboats or over the side into the waters of the South Atlantic, when the vessel began to sink, reached here today.

They were wirelessed to the International News Service by two survivors who were picked up by the Greek ship Pera.

Picture Horror

They described graphically the horror which burst suddenly upon the passengers enjoying their evening meal; the terror following explosions below decks; the panicky inquisitiveness of the women who would not be quieted by repeated assurances of the ship's officers; the wailing of little children in the darkness; and the final mad rush to the boats and water below.

"The first explosion," the survivors said, "came during the third class dinner hour. Immediately everyone

Fall-Sinclair Defense Wins Point In Trial

Court Decision Rules Out Testimony Given Before Senate

DISPUTE CAUSE WAS TESTIMONY OF 1923

Court Holds Statements Made Before Senate Probers Can't Be Used As Evidence

By GEORGE E. DURNO
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The defense in the Fall-Sinclair criminal conspiracy trial won an important victory today when Justice Frederick Siddons refused to permit government counsel to read to the jury testimony Harry F. Sinclair had given to the senate committee that turned up the oil scandals of the Harding administration in 1923 and 1924.

Under the statute which holds no testimony given before either house of congress may be used against a witness in a subsequent criminal trial the justice held admission of Sinclair's testimony to be illegal.

The testimony in dispute, given December 4, 1923, was to the effect that Sinclair, accompanied by an attorney went to former secretary of interior Albert B. Fall's ranch at Three Rivers, New Mexico, Christmas week, 1921, for the express purpose of "seeing about the leasing" of the Teapot Dome naval oil reserve. Fall and Sinclair are charged with having criminally conspired to negotiate this lease.

Siddon said, however, admit testimony given the Walsh committee on October 29, 1923, on this occasion, the justice held, Sinclair was neither subpoenaed nor sworn, and therefore not a witness under the meaning of the statute.

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 27.—Meat from the 285-pound black bear killed near Portersville by County Game Protector Joseph Curts will be given to Butler hospital as it was killed out of season, it was announced today.

The bear is believed to be the one that killed at least five sheep in the vicinity of Slippery Rock and Bruin in the last few weeks.

Formally Open "The Castleton" For Service Here

Congressman H. W. Temple And Gen. Kincaid Speak At Banquet

DAVID S. PYLE GIVES CITY BOOST

About 250 Attend Event At The Castleton Wednesday Evening

The Castleton, New Castle's new community hotel, is open for regular hotel service this afternoon following the brilliant dinner and ball which marked the inauguration of the baby of the American chain and also culminated the week's opening celebration.

It was a splendrous affair, and 250 guests, both local and out-of-the-city, attended. Directors from the other hotels in the Beaver valley, representatives of the American Hotels corporation New York office were present at the opening, as well as guests from other localities.

The opening lacked nothing to make it a success, in fact one of the most successful events ever to be held in New Castle. Brilliant is the only word that can be used to describe it, for brilliant it was.

In Ball Room.

The banquet was held in the Crystal ball room—a room tinted in tones of tan and gold—a room resplendent in the lights from three huge crystal candelabra. In all, there were 27 tables set, aside from the speaker's table, and each glittered with a full service of The Castleton's silver. At each place there was a menu and a program of the evening, and while the guests were eating in the lobby they were handed a guest list, which also contained a table seating list, showing the visitors their seats at the table.

It took The Castleton's entire staff of waiters, augmented by ten others from Pittsburgh, to serve the banquet.

Weingartner Presides.

Hon. George T. Weingartner, president of the New Castle Hotel company, acted as toastmaster and briefly sketched the beginnings of hotel service in New Castle in 1807, and bringing it down to the present.

"From its inception, New Castle has had a hotel," he declared. "And now, in the 20th century, the thinking men of the town saw a vision: saw the need for a new hotel. Some time since, committees had been appointed to discuss the matter, and it is through the efforts of these early committees that The Castleton was made possible.

"In April, 1925, a committee was appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to discuss the hotel situation, and shortly afterwards a campaign was started to raise money sufficient to build the house. Some $531,000 was subscribed by 800 New Castle citi-

CHALLENGES COMMUNITY

I want to back a Community Chest proposition that can and will go over the top, not only this year, but ten years hence.

Responsibility has been put back on each organization, their officers, their boards of directors and trustees this time. And as you know, a record of all of us is being kept at headquarters for future reference of the Community Chest Board.

Still, something is the matter. If we, the team workers, are not sold on the proposition, the general public won't be. They are suspicious of us and none of us are free from criticism. I, for one don't like it, and my proposition to you and New Castle is this, simply because I welcome constructive criticism.

I will raise my subscription to $5,000, with the distinct understanding and proviso that I be allowed to pay the salary of an expert from the firm now putting the campaign on, while a survey be made of each organization in the chest and results of same be turned over to the Community Chest Board.

As it is the third time this firm has been employed here by the men of our city, they must feel that they are capable, and I have confidence in the opinion of our men.

When such analysis is received, recommending the present set-up of all, or slight changes, or major changes, and the Community Chest Board in turn makes recommendations after carefully considering the analysis, to organizations, and they in turn are favorably acted upon by proper authorities of various institutions, my additional pledge of $3,800 goes into effect, for then the faultfinders will simply be hunting an excuse.

Who will go along?

Reach Crisis In Fund Drive! New Castle Citizens Urged To Make Greater Response

We must put the Community Chest over the top! is the sentiment of the workers on the 39 teams, who started out today to realize more than $37,000 by Saturday evening.

"And I am not pessimistic," said Herbert Peairs, director of the drive. "I believe that the citizens of New Castle will yet respond and push the Community Chest over the quota of $100,000.

"What we ask is little enough from the citizens. They must realize that the chest is not used entirely to support charity. Very little of the money realized goes in that direction. Rather, it is used for building men and women: for the support of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A.

"And it is used to Americanize those who who we have with us who cannot yet speak the American language or know little about the ways of America.

"It is used to pave the way to the road to health, for it partially supports the Shenango Valley hospital and the New Castle hospital—institutions of mercy—institutions that make for a better community and better residents of the community.

"People of New Castle should be cheerful givers. They should subscribe freely, because they are doing it for the city in which they live: they are doing it for their next door neighbor, and perhaps they are doing it for themselves. "It is a wonderful thing, this Community Chest idea, and it should receive the whole-hearted support of the community. I cannot understand why a small city like Sharon can put a $100,000 drive over the top, while the citizens of New Castle sit idly by, not supporting the institutions which make the city a real community, and content to let the other fellow do it.

"When the workers are met with a spirit like that, is it any wonder that they become discouraged? Yes, many of them are discourage, but not for long. They realize the tremendous import of their duty—their duty to New Castle—and they strive to do their duty."

Are you doing your share to aid?

Ruth Elder To Attempt Short European Flight

Daring Girl Aviatrix Will Fly From Lisbon To Madrid, Is Said

(International News Service)

LISBON, Oct. 27.—Fearful of offering an affront to Spanish and Portuguese Governments, Miss Ruth Elder today decided upon a flight from Lisbon to Madrid, after conferring with United States Minister Dearing.

Miss Elder left Lisbon for Madrid at 10:50 where she will have a short rest and will then entrain for Hendaye on the French border, flying from there to Paris.

Miss Elder still suffering from a cold and badly in need of rest was prevailed upon by Minister Dearing to accept the invitations offered her by the Portuguese and Spanish governments.

For the first time since her arrival here Miss Elder appeared this morning in a female garb, wearing a suit loaned her by Mrs. Dearing. George Haldeman, her pilot appeared in a suit borrowed from Minister Dearing which was not a perfect fit by any means.

"If Miss Elder didn't go from Lisbon to Madrid it might be considered as a rebuff to the Spanish and Portuguese governments, Minister Dear-

Pilot Of "Dawn" Answers Charge Of Woman Flier

"Bill" Stultz Will Continue To Pilot "Dawn", But Only Temporarily

PLAN TO AGAIN TEST PLANE MOTORS

"Not Yellow", Says Pilot, But Show Good Common Sense When Needed

(International News Service)

OLD ORCHARD, Me., Oct. 27.—"Bill" Stultz, pilot of "The Dawn", Mrs. Frances Wilson Grayson's amphibian trans-Atlantic plane, will fly the ship in a test flight today but only because he feels that until he has officially severed his connections with the projected flight to Copenhagen, it is his duty to handle the controls when the occasion arises.

Stultz tendered his resignation from the Grayson expedition yesterday after the publication of alleged remarks by Mrs. Grayson, which in effect said he had assumed command and headed the ship for land when it was off Sable Island in fog last Sunday. After a discussion of his resignation tonight with Mrs. Grayson, Stultz agreed to remain with the party temporarily, it was said.

Stultz, a pilot of long experience, declared, however, that the agreement to remain with the expedition temporarily did not nullify his resignation which is still in the hands of Mrs. Grayson. He was emphatic in his detail that he had turned the plane west because he was afraid to battle the fog on the Atlantic.

Shows Common Sense.

"I am not yellow," said Stultz, "but I have got a few ounces of the common sense necessary for flying."

"When I nosed the ship west off Sable Island, I did so that I might gain altitude before trying to get over the fog. The assertions credited to Mrs. Grayson which says I turned the ship west against her orders are lies. She was not giving orders at that time. Furthermore why should I take orders at a time of emergency from one whose knowledge of aeronautics is limited. Unfortunately, at the time that I was banking the ship to get altitude one of the motors went

DEATH RECORD

Mrs. Elizabeth Vogus, 43, 407 Neshannock avenue.

BOLD MOVE IS MADE IN ACTION TAKEN BY MRS. CHAS. JOHNSON

Offers $3,800 More To Chest Fund If She Is Allowed To Employ Expert At Her Own Expense To Make Survey Of Every Organization Included In Chest; Report To Be Made Of Survey To Chest Board For Action; Plan To Silence Critics Of Chest Fund In New Castle; Offer Is Accepted

With one direct thrust, Mrs. Grace Phillips Johnson, general chairman of the Community Chest drive, cut straight to the core of the work done under chest auspices of this city today at noon, at the meeting of the chest workers at The Castleton, when she offered to pay the expenses of a survey of such work in this city, with a view to putting it on a basis of efficiency. With her offer she adds $3,800 to her previous subscription to this year's chest of $1,200, making a total of $5,000.

Briefly, her plan is this, as outlined in her statement in the adjoining columns: To bring in an unbiased, disinterested expert in survey work who will go into the work of the various organizatiaons in the Community Chest and see what is being done, to ascertain what the financial needs of each organization are and to put the work in this city on such a basis that when a call for funds is needed the people will know that the call is a just one.

Plan for Future

"This plan is not designed to correct any faults in this Community Chest Drive" said Mrs. Johnson, "nor should it slow up the present drive. On the contrary it should speed it up. Something is wrong with the Community Chest drives we have been having. What that fault is I propose to find out and if my offer is accepted I believe that it will make things easier for the coming chest fund drives."

As the full significance of Mrs. Johnson's proposal dawned upon the two hundred odd workers who were present they broke into cheers. Asked by the president of the Community Chest Fund if they would go along with the proposition they gave unanimous consent.

The present Chest Fund Drive is far from being over. Thirty thousand dollars must yet be raised to place it where it should be and realizing that there must be a reason for such a condition Mrs. Johnson finally decided upon this bold move. She believes that there should be no reason for any criticism of such a worthy cause, and she proposes to remove any grounds for such criticism. This can be done by a thorough survey by experienced men and to prove her in-

Murders Wife, Then Suicides

Double Tragedy Occurs At Home Near Parkesburg Early Today

(International News Service)

PARKESBURG, Pa., Oct. 27.—Crazed by jealousy Frank Hilton, 55 year old steel worker, shot and killed his wife, Cora, 50, as they lay in bed in her father's home here early today, then turned the revolver on himself, taking his own life. Both died instantly.

The couple had attended the funeral of Mrs. Hilton's mother, Mrs. Taylor Birely, yesterday and decided to stay at the Birely home, instead of returning to their own home. The shooting took place at 5 a. m. today.

Aroused by the ringing of the alarm clock, Clara, 10-year-old daughter, who was sleeping with the couple was the only witness to the double tragedy. She was slightly burned by the powder flare from the two shots.

Chief of Police William M. Hawk, of Parkesburg, Justice of the Peace George W. Fuller and William Laughlin, a neighbor, the first to reach the scene, declared the shooting took place during a fit of insanity.

Hilton had been under surveillance of his family for some time due to apparently being deranged over imaginary suitors of his wife, according to Chief Hawk.

The couple are survived by three daughters, Sarah, Lulu, both adults, and Clara, 10.

Chest Fund Is Now Near $70,000; County Aiding

Divisions From County Outside New Castle Add $950 To Fund

WORKERS DECLARE GOAL WILL BE REACHED

Giving $950 for the support of the Community Chest Fund Drive, the 14 county districts, recently organized, made their first reports at a report meeting of all the workers of the drive, held at noon today at The Castleton.

Only six of the thirteen organized districts reported, and their total, when added to what had been solicited by the New Castle teams, made $4,773 for the work from Wednesday noon until today at noon. The workers of the campaign now have collected $67,708, and have $32,292 yet to solicit if the Chest is to be put over the top of $100,000 which has been set for this year.

A letter from Percy L. Craig, president of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath school association was read, in which he confirmed the $500 which he donated yesterday, saying that it was to be attributed to Mrs. Craig. A check for the same amount was inclosed in the letter.

County Report

County districts reported today as follows:

Team 2, Harlansburg, Mrs. Cooper, captain, $100.

Team 4, Wampum, Ray McGeorge, captain, $372.

Its your job and my job to make the Chest succeed, its your task and my task, to help where there is need, your time and my time and money we can spare, is needed now to get it done, and all of us must care. Its your town and my town, and here we work and live, and what we make, we've got to share, and all of must give. And some of us may give a lot, and others just a mite, but all of it makes bullets for the charitable fight. Its your Chest and my Chest, to do with as we will, and shall we see it fail again, or shall we see it fill? Will you stand by when there is need, and see it wane and fall, or will you do your little part and heed this worthy call? Its your job and my job, to work and hope and pay, its up to us as citizens, its fifty-eight today.

Magruder Lost Compass at Sea, Says Mr. Rogers

(Special To The News)

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Oct. 27.—The navy called in Admiral Magruder. He said the navy was spending too much money. There is only one unpardonable thing you can say either in navy, army or politics, and that is to propose to cut down expenditure.

You can accuse them of negligence and even laziness, but to suggest spending less money, well, he just lost his compass in mid-ocean.

Twelve Indicted For Manslaughter

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Oct. 27.—The twelve men of North Jackson township, who participated this week in the murder of Tony Popo, 45-year-old cripple, were indicted for manslaughter late yesterday. Bond for each was fixed at $2,500. Among the number was E. F. Eckis, justice of the peace. Popo was shot down when the men surrounded him and sought to recover two animals. Shortly after approaching Popo, some one opened fire and he dropped dead in the fusillade of bullets.

Rear Admiral Magruder Anxiously Awaits Word From Appeal Sent To Coolidge

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 27.—Awaiting action of President Coolidge on his appeal from the order recalling him as commandant of the Philadelphia navy yard, Rear Admiral Magruder today prepared to address the Reserve Association in honor of Navy Day. Admiral Magruder and Assistant Secretary of the Navy Robinson are to be the chief speakers before the former sailors and marines.

Admiral Magruder's appeal in the form of a letter addressed to the president "via the secretary of the navy," was forwarded to Washington late yesterday. The admiral refused to make any comment on his appeal, or on his tilt with naval heads which resulted in Secretary Wilbur summarily detaching him from his command here and ordering him to report to Washington.

Admiral Magruder has had more than 30 years of service and is eligible to retire on pension. He is 60 years old.

He is to be succeeded by Rear Admiral Julian L. Latimer, on November 5.

CONGRESSMEN MAY GET CALL TO PROBE NAVAL EFFICIENCY

directly to President Coolidge for revocation of the order issued by Wilbur. The President is expected to receive Magruder's protest late today, and since the order calls him to Washington for an indefinite duty about November 5, an early decision must be made.

Navy chiefs appeared confident that Mr. Coolidge would sustain the order of Secretary Wilbur who acted, however, after a conference with the powerful bureau chiefs of the department. They pointed to the President's support of the War Department in the Col. "Billy" Mitchell case and his recent recall of Major-General Summerall from the Pacific coast because of speeches criticizing the administration.

Regardless of the President's action, however, Magruder is expected to have the chance of airing his charges before congressional committees. Chairman Butler of the House Naval Affairs committee is committed to hearing Magruder. Minority members were understood to be planning to make emphatic demands that he be called.

Adopt New Course

With the experience of the famous Admiral Sims case a poignant memory, Secretary Wilbur and the bureau chiefs have taken a decidedly different course in an effort to stifle the "Magruder case."

Although the Admiral termed his recall from the Philadelphia post an "insult," Secretary Wilbur insisted that the action was taken "for administrative, and not punitive" reasons. The Secretary's statement, nevertheless, carried a stinging rebuke.

Wilbur hinted that Magruder might be sent to work on a plan to reform the navy when he came to Washington but said he had not decided upon a definite assignment.

"That will depend upon my conference with him," he said, adding that "any request by Admiral Magruder will be given consideration."

The navy secretary also refused to say that court-martial charges would not be filed against the Admiral later. He asserted that he is more interested just now "in ascertaining whether or not the navy can benefit by Admiral Magruder's knowledge or experience in regard to naval organization and naval economy."

Bureau chiefs, however, were frank in their hostility toward Magruder for his articles in a magazine and his subsequent newspaper interviews. They did not regard his charges of too many navy yards and high cost of repairs so seriously because they blame "political appropriations" by congress for some of these conditions. They were aroused, though by Magruder's charges that there are too many "desk admirals" in Washington and too much red tape throughout the navy.

Publication of correspondence between Secretary Wilbur and Magruder revealed a long list of inaccuracies were charged to Magruder in his magazine and newspaper statements. The veteran admiral however, refused to retract in any major instance. He clung tenaciously to his charges that the navy was "spending $300,000,000 and get $200,000,000 worth of navy."

rushed to decks, excitedly asking if the ship was sinking.

"Horror and fear gripped the passengers in spite of the efforts of the officers who explained that there was 'a little trouble in the engine room which will soon be repaired.'

Panic Ensues

"Then a panic ensued, especially among the women emigrants. Mothers, with wailing children clutching their skirts, screamed and joined the general rush of the third class passengers on the second class deck.

"Officers and crew did their best to prevent the fear-stricken from leaping overboard without life preservers. They worked heroically to calm the frightened crowd.

"Soon two more explosions shook the ship and she began to settle by the stern.

"The night was pitch dark and in the blackness tumult reigned. Women collapsed. Men aided the sailors to lower the boats and place life preservers upon the women.

"When the boats were swung, the women and children were placed aboard first. Some men attempted to get aboard, but when they saw there was not enough room in the boats for all at the moment, they took refuge on the life-rafts.

"The work of swinging and lowering the boats was most difficult due to the inky blackness of the night. The crew worked manfully to accommodate all the passengers and the stewards struggled to calm hysterical women and children. Only drinking water was placed in the boats, as the crew knew the coast was not far away.

"Soon afterwards a light was seen on the horizon. It was the Formosa. Later the British vessel Rosetti arrived and by agreement, one vessel picked up all those in life boats and the crews of the other ships took care of those floating about on rafts or preservers.

"For five hours the Mafalda remained afloat, and then, after another explosion, she sank. A mighty wave was thrown up as she disappear below the surface.

"The women and children were rescued first and most of them muttered prayers of thankfulness."

zens, and a contract was signed with the American Hotels corporation to operate the house after it was constructed.

"And it is to you, as a citizen of New Castle, that the hotel belongs. Use it and be proud of it."

Presents D. S. Pyle.

Mr. Weingartner introduced David S. Pyle, president of the New Castle Chamber of Commerce.

"I have lived in New Castle all my life," stated Mr. Pyle, "and I have longed to see the day come when New Castle would have a real hotel, and The Castleton, I must say, is a wonderful asset to the community.

"As I see it The Castleton will bring men and women to town who formerly have stopped for the night either at Youngstown or Pittsburgh. It will bring these men and women, men and women who are accustomed to real food and service, I am sure.

"Like the Chamber of Commerce it will advertise New Castle. Even now the chamber is running a full page advertisement in the Iron Trade Review which tells of the advantages of locating in the city. Also there are signs erected by the chamber on which are emblazoned. You are approaching New Castle, the world's tin plate center.' In other ways this city is being widely advertised.

"Places like The Castleton will prove to the casual visitor that New Castle is no longer a one horse town but that it is a real industrial center and a growing city.

Congressman Temple.

The Hon. Henry W. Temple made a brief address.

"To come to a hotel like The Castleton makes me wonder if I am still in New Castle, and I wish to congratulate those who were instrumental in building it as well as the whole city.

"The house attracts the visitor as soon as he enters" averred Dr. Temple" and you have my every good wish for the success of the hotel and the propserity of the town."

Dr. Temple related the importance of good hotels and good roads in the progress of any country or any section and declared that Pennsylvania has taken the lead in roads and good hotels. This state is a leader in the world in this respect, the progress having been marked during the past few years. The good roads leading to New Castle and the magnificent place to stop now provided will assure that this city will attract many more visitors in the future than ever before, Dr. Temple said.

Hotel Co. President Speaks.

General J. Leslie Kincaid president of the American Hotels Corporation was next introduced to the assembly by Mr. Weingartner.

"The need for a real metropolitan hotel in New Castle is now met by The Castleton and when I inspected it a few hours ago I found that there were very few changes that I could suggest, even if the hotel were to be built over and more than $1,000,000 to be expended in the construction.

"Like the cathedrals of European cities the hotel in America represents the last word in the creative efforts of the craftsman and artesians. Here they have an opportunity to express themselves, to show what they have in them and they have done it in The Castleton.

"It is essential that every community have a good hotel' he concluded, "for the traveling public judges a community by the hotel. The traveling public will appreciate The Castleton, and it will greatly enhance New Castle's prestige.

"I know Manager Slack and I am sure that he will be an asset to the community. He is a fine man and has made an enviable record with our company and I am sure that in The Castleton he will do the same in New Castle."

BELIEVE HEROIC CAPTAIN WENT DOWN WITH SHIP

miles off the coast of Bahia, Brazil, Tuesday night while carrying about 1,200 persons, including passengers and crew. At latest official advices it appeared all but 68 had been rescued by half a dozen vessels which sped to the scene immediately upon receipt of the doomed ships S.O.S.

However, as with the exact cause of the Mafalda's foundering, there still remains some doubt as to actual number of those rescued and missing. Details of the tragedy which have reached the International News Service by wireless from survivors aboard the rescue ships, attribute the sinking to several explosions in the engine room, apparently caused by water reaching the boilers through a hole resulting from a broken propeller shaft.

Officials of the Brazilian government have made preparations to care for the survivors when they do land. All will be guests of the government at the immigration hotel on Flores Island, inside the bay here.

Deaths Of The Day

The funeral services for the late Rev. Mrs. Annie L. Johns, which will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Agnes Guthrie, in the Fisher apartment, 1219 South Jefferson street, will be conducted in accordance with the rites of the Spiritualist church. The Rev. W. G. Wind of Buffalo, N. Y., will be in charge of the services.

Mr. Rick's Funeral.

Funeral services of William Rick were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the late residence, 643 East Washington street, with Rev. F. E. Stough, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, in charge. The pallbearers were: R. W. Shaffer, James L. Artz, William Mitchell, H. W. Miles, William Hess and E. E. Cross. Interment was made in Oak Park cemetery.

Mrs. Woods Funeral.

Funeral services of the late Mrs. Martha Woods, 505 Whippo street, were held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Burke Funeral Home, 418 Croton avenue, with Rev. Rowe of the Nazarene church in charge. The pallbearers were relatives of the deceased. Interment was made in Graceland cemetery.

Time Of Riley Funeral.

Funeral services of the late Edward Riley will be held Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock in St. Joseph's church, instead of 10 o'clock as previously announced. The body will be at the Burke Funeral Home, 418 Croton avenue, until the time of the funeral.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vogus.

Mrs. Elizabeth Logue Vogus, aged 43, of 407 Neshannock avenue, died suddenly Wednesday night, October 26, at the St. Francis hospital in Pittsburgh following a paralytic stroke.

Mrs. Vogus is survived by two sons, Edward and Joseph, one sister, Mrs. John McGowan, and three brothers, John, James and Robert Logue, all of New Castle.

Mrs. Vogus was visiting in Pittsburgh when she was stricken with paralysis and rushed to the hospital but died within two hours after her first attack. The body will be brought to New Castle this afternoon and arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

OFFICIAL DEMPSEY-TUNNEY FIGHT PICTURES AT PENN

Years ago boxing matches were looked upon as the sport of only a certain element of the people, but with horse racing called the sport of kings boxing matches, or prize fights, as some designate them, are now the sport of the whole world, men and women alike. This was demonstrated by the Dempsey-Tunney battle at Soldiers Field, Chicago, September 22, when the governors of 10 or 12 states, numerous U. S. Senators, Congressmen, and hosts of the lesser political lights, bankers, professional men and leaders in business and society, men and women, were present. In all 140,000 people saw the battle.

All this is shown in the official fight pictures which are being shown at the Penn theatre, beginning today and running until Saturday evening. Every blow of the battle, the famous 7th round knock-down, in slow motion, the sensational finish of the battle, the training scenes, the ringside scenes and views of many notables, all these are a part of these pictures—said to be the clearest and best fight pictures ever taken.

In addition to the Dempsey-Tunney pictures Charles Murray and George Sidney, the greatest comedy team in the films will be seen in "The Life of Riley". This is an unusually good laugh riot and everyone will enjoy it. Come and see this wonderful program at the Penn theatre.

UNREDEEMED MILLIONS

A HALF century hence, some of the three-billion-dollar issue of second-loan Liberty bonds that has been called in by the federal government for redemption on November 15 will be trickling into the United States treasury. They will come in from all sorts of caches and long-forgotten places of safe-keeping and on account of all sorts of unexpected discoveries.. For the record of the past shows that no amount of pleading and coaxing will bring forth all the bonds promptly, though the bulk of them will be presented for exchange or redemption before the cessation of interest payments.

There is now $100,000,000 in the treasury at Washington awaiting the holders of government bonds and other evidences of public indebtedness that were never presented for redemption though they matured years ago and the interest payments stopped on the date of maturity.

No doubt a large majority of these government certificates have never been redeemed because they have been lost, forgotten or destroyed, but thousands of them are being held by people who either do not understand that they bear no interest after date of maturity or who just neglect to redeem them. Doomed to blasting disappointment are they who hold government securities for years after they have matured in the belief that the interest has been allowed to accumulate.

Though the government now has the use of $100,000,000 without interest and will use a large slice of the Second Liberty Loan long after November 15, it prefers to redeem them and spends thousands of dollars annually in locating those to whom the money belongs. The treasury recently spent $5,000 for the privilege of broadcasting the redemption program.

IS IT ANOTHER CASE OF THE LAW'S DELAY?

HENRY JUDD GRAY and Ruth Snyder murdered in cold blood the husband of the Snyder woman. There is not the slightest doubt. Both of them wanted to get rid of the man. They did it. They confessed their crime, only each one accused the other of the actual killing, as if that could make any possible difference. Both were equally guilty. That is the law.

And now the law is appealed to for delay. Already there has been one respite. The pair were sentenced to electrocution on June 20 last. Their lawyers appealed on the ground of insanity. A lunacy commission was appointed. Mrs. Snyder and Gray were pronounced sane. They are in the death cells of Sing Sing awaiting their fate. Now come their lawyers to the front again with a demand for a new trial. The man and the woman had been tried together. All wrong, declare their counsel. The court made an error in refusing that they should be arraigned separately. The full bench has consented to sit and hear the arguments. Mere technicalities, you will observe, and yet technicalities are mainly responsible for halting justice or freeing defendants.

Sacco and Vanzetti, it will be remembered, languished in prison for six or seven years after they had been convicted of murder. Much was said in Communistic papers of the brutality of keeping men caged for a long period with a sentence of death hanging over them. But that was their choice. The state was ready to go ahead with the executions. It was their own legal advisers that turned every stone in search of a cudgel to force the reopening of the case. It was a perfect example of what can be done to bar justice under the workings of the law. And now we see the Snyder-Gray lawyers adopting similar tactics.

Are we to have the Sacco-Vanzetti experience all over again? Fortunately the prisoners are under New York, not Massachusetts, jurisdiction. Still here are the technicalities, despite the fact that murder has been proved and even confessed. It remains for the bench to decide whether the rule of common sense shall prevail or whether it will seriously consider legal hair-splitting.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

BUCK UP!

Buck up! the demon of despair
Is stronger than your strongest foe,
Shake off the shackles which you wear,
Stand up and give life blow for blow.
Take failure now, tomorrow, too.
And then the next day if you must,
But watch that chap inside of you!
He is the one you mustn't trust.

That vicious fellow of your mind
That whispers craven hints, and tries
With artful cowardice to bind
Your hands and arms and blind your eyes
Needs watching more than outer foes,
For greater injury he'll do.
He'll steal the courage from your blows,
And make a coward out of you.

Buck up! and get your vision straight
The enemy you have to fight
Is not the one beyond the gate,
But one that's with you day and night.
His voice is plaintive and he wails
That all is lost and hope is vain
Your every dream this foe assails
Don't give him lodgment in your brain.

Buck up! One victory wipes out
A hundred failures gone before;
Heed not the little voice of doubt
That sickly whispers: "Try no more."
See clearly failure and success
And all the men who've struggled through
And watch that demon of distress
Which seeks to make a wreck of you.

Your thoughts are stronger than your foes,
They'll drive your dearest friends away—
They'll weaken you and they'll impose
New fears upon you, day by day.
Who gives his mind unto despair
Lodges a foeman in his brain.
Buck up! Tomorrow may be fair,
For cowards only hope is vain.

A few days ago we had the pleasure of being in Columbus, O., and while there we also had the pleasure of calling on Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Gallant, formerly of this city. Mr. Gallant was for several years editor of The News. We sure did have a great time talking about old times in New Castle. Mr. Gallant has been quite successful in Columbus, being associated with the Ohio Law Enforcement League in an official capacity. There was a man out in Wisconsin who went to a revival meeting and was pressed to repent. He wavered for a time, and finally arose and said: "Freinds. I want to repent and tell how bad I have been. but I dasn't do it when the grand jury is in session."

"The Lord will forgive," shouted the revivalist.

"Probably he will," answered the sinner, "but he ain't on that grand jury."

THE INTELLIGENT JUROR

The trial had lasted seven days,
The lawyers all were weary;
The judge gazed o'er the multitude
With sleepy eyes quite bleary.
The jury was ready to retire,
Tense was the situation.
The judge said: "Any question, men,
Do you wish information?"
One juror rose and asked the judge,
In manner independent,
"Your Honor, what's the difference 'tween
A plaintiff and defendant?"

CONTENTMENT

We have neither bonds nor mortgage,
Just a little plot of ground,
Where the birds are always singing
And there's music all around.

We have made our humble home,
It has neither tow'r or steeple,
Nor embellished with a dome.

But at eventide while resting
As the sun sinks in the west,
And the four o'clocks are blooming—
Morning glories gone to rest,

And a robin softly warbling
To his mate just over there,
We are feeling fine and happy,
There's contentment ev'rywhere.

For we've found a pleasant pathway,
Flowers all along the way,
And the secret—I will tell you,
Are the friends we have today.

The Governor of Michigan has been asked to remove the Mayor of Detroit because that man declared that he would not enforce the 18th amendment and wouldn't try to enforce it. The trouble with law enforcement today is that officials won't try to enforce a law and come out and make an announcement to that effect. The result is an invitation for people to violate that particular law, and when that is done they violate all laws with impunity after a little. No man in public office, regardless of personal beliefs or ideas has any right to condemn any law or declare in favor of its non enforcement. The law of the land is supreme, ahead of personal beliefs, and every law should be enforced just as strongly as is humanly possible. We have no sympathy for law-breaking or law ignoring officials.

Flying Fare, $18.60.
Another Woman Scorned.
No Book Bonfire.
The Fanatic's Grip.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE
(Copyright, 1927, By N. Y. American, Inc.

While we talk about flying commercially, and about the possibility of cheap flying, Britishers fly from London to Paris for $18.60.

In 1919 the flying fare was $100. How many long-distance passengers will railroads and steamships carry, when real flying days come, across this continent, or across the ocean, in 10 hours, fare about $2 an hour, $20 to Europe?

Men can't realize it, but it is dangerous to trifle with the wrong young lady.

Irene Johnson, young, energetic and colored, handed a bill to her taxi driver and an automatic pistol to the police sergeant. "Here's my gat," said she, "I've just killed my boy."

"Her boy" is, or was, before he acted foolishly, a Pullman car porter. He called on Irene, bringing four other young ladies with him, and met the "gat".

Wherever he has gone now, that "boy" will tell the inhabitants "that's all true about Hell having no fury like a woman scorned."

Mayor Thompson of Chicago, wise man up with the times, never ordered any bonfire to be made of books that he did not like. That was the idea of Chicago's public library administrator, Mr. Herman, who has been a stage hand and has an eye for the dramatic. There will be no medieval burning of books or their writers while Thompson is mayor.

Four French hostages, captured by Arabs, are held in a mud block, heavily chained and in the power of a powerful sheik named Temga, known as a "Terrible Fanatic". In his eyes to chain, then kill anybody that does not believe in the Prophet is the shortest road to paradise.

Heaven help anybody in the hands of a fanatic, Mohammedan, Christian or other. The only difference between them is that one is a little more blood thirsty than the other.

Rothermere, most powerful man in England because he owns the most powerful newspapers, demands Lloyd George's return to power.

Britain is excited about this, and about Rothermere's statement that Lloyd George is the man to hold Socialism in check.

Many of Britain's "great men" will seem small, when history compares them with Lloyd George. He financed the war, supplied the ammunition and then, with Clemenceau, he won the war. Now Britain needs him to pull the country out of the post-war slough of industrial despond.

Once more you are warned, be cautious about selling anything short in America. Some that sold General Motors short recently had their little fingers pinched Tuesday when "G. M." hopped up over three points.

Itw ill hop higher today, probably, when the world learns that the company has earned more than $64,000,000. (Sixty-four million.) That means earnings at the rate of more than $14 a share on the new stock, selling at about $128.

We warn you, don't gamble; and more earnestly we warn you, don't sell this country short.

Cotton jumped up more than two dollars a bale Tuesday. Steel stock went up, money was cheap. You could borrow at 3½ per cent for speculation. Altogether it was pleasant for brokers, whose seats are now worth a quarter of a million apiece. You could buy one for $25,000 not long ago.

A killing that will puzzle the jury comes from McHenry county in Illinois. The police announce that William Schumacher, 28, was innocent of the charge that he had killed his father. Schumacher told them "you are wrong. I waited for him to come into the barn, pulled the trigger, and the shot almost blew his head off."

His father made him work before and after school when he was nine years old, took him out of school for good when he was 12, and made him do a man's work. He beat the boy's mother repeatedly, knocked her into a hot stove and left her there, drove a pitchfork into the leg of a younger brother, so far that the boy could not pull it out without help.

Just before the murder he knocked his wife to the floor with a blow on the chin, accusing her of infidelity, saying a farmhand was the real father of the 28-year-old son.

That son killed him. The neighbors corroborate the story of cruelty.

It will not be easy to get a conviction in that case.

After all the talk about "extravagant women" you will be interested in this fact, provided by the United States department of labor: Men, on the average, spend more for their clothes than the women. The average for husbands is $71.38; for wives, $63.55.

Women are the economical half of the household, making ends meet, denying themselves for the children and the future. Not to know it is not to know women or men.

Four thousand miners in Colorado struck, under orders of the I. W. W. Miners may do as they please with their working hands, and use their judgment about striking.

But coal workers and owners should remember one thing.

Oil is taking the place of coal for steamships, locomotives, heating plants and engines of highest efficiency. Oil spouts from the ground, you need not mine it. Oil flows through pipes, needs no stoker, feeds itself to supply power. Coal once dropped for oil is not taken back again.

All that is no reason why mine owners should oppress their men, or why workers should submit to injustice. But it is a reason for earnest thinking.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

TELEGRAPHERS KNOW.

Thomas Edison is one of the Americans, the story of whose life American boys love to read along with the story of other Americans who were not born with a silver spoon in their mouths. In fact, there have been so many Americans born in poverty and died in riches that school boys are apt to get the idea that no one can possibly be successful who is the son of a rich man.

Thomas Edison earned his first salary as a telegrapher. Naturally, he was a good one. The old time telegraphers held a convention in New York recently, and Mr. Edison was there of course. His presence suggested an incident in the early days in his life when he was employed as a telegraph operator in a Boston office. It became his duty to take the Press despatches from New York. Young Edison was regarded at that time as a fast operator, and his associates thinking to stick him, conspired against him. They arranged that the sender of the Press despatches from the New York office should be the fastest man that the New York office had in its employ.

On the first night the New York fast man was placed in charge of the press wire, and instructed to "burn em up". That meant he was to fire the news stories into Edison as fast as he could. He did his best, and after he had sent in four thousand words with no break from the Boston office, he stopped long enough to ask Edison if he was "getting it."

Edison answered, pronto: "Yes, send with the other foot!"

In Day's News

Giovanni Giolitti, to whom the people of Italy will pay tribute today on the occasion of his eighty-fifth birthday anniversary, has had a remarkable career in politics. For nearly 15 years Signor Giolitti dominated Italy, whether in office or out of office. He held the premiership five times and for an aggregate period longer than the great Cavour. He had the additional distinction of being the first Italian Prime Minister who sprang from the ranks of the civil service. While at the helm of state Signor Giolitti proved himself a statesman of strong and determined character and always enjoyed the confidence of the King. In the crisis at the beginning of the World War his influence was exerted in favor of an anti-war policy. With the Italian declaration of war upon Austria-Hungary and an accession of unpopularity, he retired from public life.

AIR MAIL

We often hear the assertion that America is far behind Europe in flying.

Colonel Lindbergh, however, said on his return from Paris that "Europe looks with reverence on the air mail service."

Of course much attention has been devoted in the public prints to stunt flying, air races, etc. Fliers have competed in a race to Honolulu and across the ocean. But the government has steadily gone ahead and is covering the country with a network of air mail lines which operate in all kinds of weather and at all seasons of the year.

The first air mail route established was the Washington-New York line on May 18, 1918.

Long flights, however, were more practical than short ones because so much time was spent in the short flights in taking the mail from the air fields to the post office for distribution.

In 1921 the first transcontinental lines were established. At first there was no night flying. The planes would fly as far as they could during the daytime and take up the pouches again in the morning.

In 1922, however, the government began studying night flying and experimenting in beacons, lighthouses, etc. Many air mail pilots, Colonel Lindbergh among them, were called on for advice.

In the summer of 1923 a lighted air way was established over Wyoming. There were no great cities to guide the way.

In August, 1923, trips were made from New York to San Francisco in twenty-six hours, as opposed to the train time of ninety hours. After many successful flights the time was found to be under thirty hours, or one-third of the railroad time.

In July, 1924, the rate for mail was fixed at 24 cents an ounce between New York and San Francisco, but later this was reduced to 20 cents an ounce.

The next step was regular air mail service overnight between New York and Chicago. In February, 1926, the government closed a contract with a commercial company for transporting mail by air between Detroit and Cleveland on one route and between Detroit and Chicago on another.

On July 1 the government went out of business and began to let contracts to provide companies. Now the whole country is interlaced by these companies with contract air lines.

The line from New York to San Francisco with its various branch lines totals thousands of miles. The mail leaves New York regularly at eleven in the morning and gets to San Francisco at 4:30 the next afternoon. There are nineteen regularly established flying routes. This year's operation was completed without a single fatal accident.

BIG JOBS AHEAD.

The boys and girls who are now in high school and college are going to find some big jobs awaiting them when they get out of school.

We elders are leaving plenty for the next generation to do. The period since the World war has been perhaps the most interesting and the most exciting period in all the world's history. Much has been accomplished But there's a greater period ahead if the men and women are ready to make the most of it.

The common cold remains perhaps the greatest enemy of human life and comfort on earth. During the past 10 or twenty thousand years practically nothing has been done about it. Some bright pupil now in high school may do as much for victims of the common cold as has been done within the last few years for victims of diabetes.

Cancer, diseases of the heart and tuberculosis still rage terribly among the sons of men. Within the last two generations progress has been made in the conquest of tuberculosis. Only the most elementary progress has been made toward battling sucessfully against cancer and heart diseases. There's plenty of work for the medical men of the next two or three decades.

A sealevel canal must be dug across Nicaragua. The flood problem must be met and solved, not only along the Mississippi where most of the work must be done immediately but along a score of large streams in North and South America.

A complete permanent highway system suited to very heavy traffic, must be constructed for the United States and Canada. None of the existing highways will be wide enough or strong enoukh to bear the traffic or strong enough to bear the traffic that will be ready to roll across the continent as soon as there are roads to bear it up.

LEAVES $50,000 FOR NEW SCHOOL

ERIE, Pa., Oct. 27.—Dr. Lewis Heard, widely known North East doctor, who died recently, left $50,000 in his will for the use of the North East school board to be used for the erection and equipment of a new separate grade school building for the use of both the borough and the township.

The fund is to be placed at interest for ten years, when the building is to be erected. It will then amount to approximately $100,000 with the interest compounded and added. The gift is in memory of his late father and mother and wife.

Dr. Heard, according to those who knew him well, was very much interested in the education of the youth of North East.

The Daybook OF A New Yorker

BY BURTON RASCOE

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—One of the most novel studios in New York is about to be opened to the public. It is in the rear of a bookshop at 65 Fourth avenue, opposite Wanamaker's store. The interior of the studio has been constructed almost entirely out of discarded packing cases, but some very beautiful cabinet making and wood carving has been put into the row wood by the artist whose workshop it is. This young man is a Russian, Ber Coffet, is a sculptor who has worked for years at the prosaic trade of being a hatter, by day, and who has studied and toiled by night at his wood carvings and modelling. Now at last he has a studio of his own, self made, and is showing there one of the most interesting art exhibitions in New York. He has about 12 interesting pieces on display, both in bronze and marble.

Panorama of New York . . . The rare, tiny orchids, like yellow butterflies alighting, in the window of Galvin's the florist above the Ritz . . . The brash fellow who tries to sell every man who is escorting a woman to the theatre "red roses for the lady." He is always trailing along Forty-fourth street, both before and after the performance. What an old-fashioned idea, what an irritating hang-over from a romantic past, that of weighting a woman down with thorny flowers just before she takes her seat in the theatre. If I were a woman, I should be annoyed with any stupid male who would add further to life's complications . . The joyous hand Raymond Hitchcock receives, after a seemingly long absence from Broadway, when he appears as the amiable comedian in "Just Fancy" with Joseph Sanley and Ivy Sawyer. In a curtain speech he explains he is deeply interested in the young Santleys (they are producing the piece) because they met and married in his company, more then ten years ago. He says that Ivy Sawyer's mother had permitted her to come to America under his guardianship because she didn't know him very well. Hitchcock seems to me one of the most likable of comedians. He is droll in an intelligent manner. He is an incurable ad libber, and most of the time has the other members of the cast weak with giggles not written in by the authors of the script.

Howard Shelley, who does a Broadway publicity racket, and might reasonably be expected to take his New York as it comes, quite without criticism or question, is developing what amounts almost to a phobia on the question of skyscrapers and the terrific growth of crowded life in the city, generally. He says he didn't mind the occasional skyscrapers in the Times Square and Grand Central district, but now that every corner blooms with a towering structure, the city is beginning to get on his nerves. He is oppressed by the feeling of being crowded down into nothingness by these great, hulking, unfeeling buildings. I sympathize with him. Sometimes, when I find myself swept along Broadway, in that hectic after-theatre rush that is nothing short of bedlam, I am burdened with the same stifling sensation. There are just a few too many people in New York.

The tunnel may be quicker and more efficient, and certainly it is a triumph of engineering, but I am all for the blowing breezes and the vicarious scents of shipping.

WARNS AGAINST REDUCING FAD

EAGLESVILLE, Pa., Oct. 27.—The fad among women for reducing weight is an important contributing factor to the increase of tuberculosis in women, according to Dr. Theodore Appel, state secretary of health.

"Tuberculosis specialists throughout the country are trying to find the cause for a notable increase of the disease among women during the past few years. No definite cause has yet been ascertained, although many suppositions have been made. I believe that the practice of certain methods of reducing is an important factor in the conditions," he said.

DOG, CHEWING LIVE WIRE, KNOCKED OUT

BUTLER, Pa., Oct. 27.—There is a sadder and wiser fox terrier here. The terrier, owned by W. S. Todd, attracted by an electric wire, began chewing it up. After he had munched it a while, the bare wire touched his tongue and the terrier received the full benefit of 110 volts of electricity.

The dog was found unconscious, but is "convalescing" now.

The Sensible Treatment

CHAMBERLAIN'S TABLETS "Help You Stay Well"

Alice Brady, Charming American Actress, writes:

"My work on the stage may appear easy to an audience but, as a matter of fact, it is very strenuous. Now and then I indulge in a cigarette for relaxation and pleasure. I use Lucky Strikes, as I find they not only protect my voice but afford me the greatest amount of genuine enjoyment."

Alice Brady

Smooth, mellow, fragrant

And 11,105* doctors say Lucky Strikes prevent throat irritation

WHAT is the quality that Antonio Scotti, Rosa Raisa, Lawrence Tibbett, Leon Rothier, Florence Macbeth, Holbrook Blinn, Alice Brady, and other famous singers, actors, broadcasters and public speakers have found that makes LUCKY STRIKES delightful and of no possible injury to their voices?

For the answer we turned to medical men and asked them this question:

Do you think from your experience with LUCKY STRIKE cigarettes that they are less irritating to sensitive or tender throats than other cigarettes, whatever the reason?

11,105* doctors answered this question "Yes."

Consider what these figures mean; consider that they represent the opinion and experience of doctors, those whose business it is to know.

"It's toasted"

No Throat Irritation—No Cough.

* We hereby certify that we have examined 11,105 signed cards confirming the above statement.

Little Stories

It was bad enough for South High to defeat New Castle High, but some Youngstown fan with a mania for "rubbing it in" has made his presence in New Castle known with a piece of chalk, and strange to say, he "rubbed it in" at city hall, where everybody who should take notice of things apparently have not.

Written in chalk on the corner of the City building is the inscription: "South High beat New Castle; Ha! Ha! Ha!" Believing the police, firemen, city hall employes or janitor would take note of the 'enemy's work', nothing has been said, but inasmuch as they have not been observing, it is time someone else spoke—so bring forth the brush, water and soap.

Time for Dickey To Display Flower

Time was, and it was not so many months ago, that Thomas Dickey, local attorney, never appeared without a nice flower in the lapel of his coat and El Verso between his teeth. Lately, however, it has been observed that T. W. D. has apparently abandoned the flower, though he still clings to the cigar. Seeing Tom without his flower is like eating bread without salt. Somehow or another it doesn't seem natural. Perhaps the attorney will be disporting the flower in the lapel of his coat the next time we see him in Washington street.

George Nickum Is Real Chalk Artist

George Nickum, municipal electrician, is versed in the handling of crayon. In fact, he is something of an artist in drawing pictures, his latest etching having been drawn on a blackboard in the police station. It shows a porker, of the variety that was to be seen at the fair ground exhibits. No one knows why George drew a porker on the blackboard in the police station. One of the boys today suggested that George be asked to chalk his impression of the animal that chased Tom O'Brien, Sam Smith and he from the forest near Frizzleburg. Of course, not having seen the animal, but having heard it growl, George would be expected to draw something of a freakish nature. No, he won't draw the likeness of an owl. He disputes the assertion that it was a screech owl that he heard in the blackness of the night in the forest.

What's What in Washington

BY CHARLES P STEWART

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to New Castle News.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—President William Green of the American Federation af Labor, re-elected a few days ago, is about as different from the late Samuel Gompers, his predecessor, as it's possible to imagine.

And yet he seems to have been created for Gompers' old job just as especially as Gompers created it to suit himself in the first place.

It was a job which Gompers was a good fit for, of course, being the designer of it. How the master minds of the American Federation were able to tell, in advance, that Greeen could mold himself into it so accurately is something of a mystery.

There was no accident about it. Gompers died in office. It was the duty of the federation's little executive group in Washington to choose a successor for the balance of his term.

It behooved them to choose wisely, for it is not a post in which much changing is desirable.

The responsibility was heavy on the men charged with the selection and they made it prayerfully—literally.

That Gompers was not approximately duplicated isn't surprising, for another man of his type would have been hard to find, but Green is of almost an opposite type.

For all that, he fills the bill, apparently to perfection.

Gompers was the ideal of his work at the time he was doing it, and now that the task has changed quite radically, Green's another ideal, under the new conditions.

The men who picked him, picked him too deliberately not to be given credit for deciding on him as a feat of straight brain-work and good judgment, and it really was a remarkable performance—hitting it as exactly as they did, in spite of the radical departure they were making from their original model.

Gompers was a genius and Green is the embodiment of sound common sense.

Gompers was fiery and impatient.

Green is cool, unhurried—but efficient—and substantial.

Gompers was the man to build the American Federation up, and he did build it up, and Green, if looks signify anything, is the man to hold it together.

Gompers was a great man—which is by no means to imply that Green isn't.

Only Gompers knew he was. He was entirely too great to put on any airs about it, but it was obvious that he had himself correctly estimated in his own mind.

Green's as unassuming as the "old shoe" they tell about.

Gompers was the character to start from "scratch" and wind up with an empire.

Green, as I size him, has the qualifications to take the empire in hand and administer it wisely and progressively.

No doubt it's sacrilegious to say so, but Samuel Gompers always struck me as a magnificent old aristocrat.

William Green gives me the impression of a fine specimen of the best the common people have to offer.

"Labor" strikes me as having borrowed Gompers in an emergency.

Green's a normal, natural president of the American Federation of Labor.

BUDAPEST, Oct. 27.—Conflicting and unconfirmed reports were current today concerning the wreck of a passenger train on a bridge of the Serajavo-Mostar railway.

It was reported that the train plunged into a gorge below when the bridge collapsed.

One unconfirmed report from Belgrade stated that 260 persons were killed and scores injured. Another unconfirmed report said only two persons were killed.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

Persistent coughs and colds lead to serious trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action; it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and inhibits germ growth.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by high medical authorities as one of the greatest healing agencies for persistent coughs and colds and other forms of throat troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the infected membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and checks the growth of the germs.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of persistent coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, bronchitis and other forms of respiratory diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. (adv.)

Letter Expresses Gratitude From State Secretary

W. L. Pander, local registration chairman for the State Sabbath School Convention, has received the following letter of appreciation from Walter E. Myers, general secretary of the State Sabbath School Association:

Philadelphia, Oct. 21, 1927.

MR. W. L. PANDER,
716 Blaine Street,
New Castle, Pa.

DEAR MR. PANDER:

A good many people said—"How did you ever do it, anyway?"—and I just had to be very frank and say—"We didn't do it. It was that splendid local committee that did it."

I remember at one previous convention where they just insisted that they must have 750 registration credentials, and we finally compromised and gave them 500, because we were limited in our entertaining capacity there by reason of a small auditorium, and frankly, when New Castle said they were going to have 1,000 I just kind of admired their enthusiasm but didn't admire their judgment. Then when you rolled up such a splendid local registration as you did, it simply carried us off our feet.

Well, this is just to say "thank you"! Won't you tell those who helped you how splendid they were and how much we appreciated the fine work they have done? Accept my personal word of gratitude, for it voices the expression of all our constituency from all over the state. You have set a new level that's going to be hard to beat. I think we are going to do it here in Philadelphia—I hope so—we'll be ashamed of ourselves, of course, in a great big city of two million if we don't; yet, it's a pretty high level to attain.

Thank you again.

Cordially,
WALTER E. MYER,
General Secretary.

The Rip Saw

By BUZ

We all like the modern girl. We mean she of the shortened tresses, dresses and ruby lips and cheeks. It's all because she is in keeping with the times. We wouldn't go backward for anything.

But there is something she might learn from her less progressive predecessor, namely, observance of parental advice and restrictions; love of homelife as against desire for constant entertainment and finally some thought for the purse strings of the boy friend.

Such a combination would make for better conditions and less activity in the divorce court.

"A" BATTERY ELIMINATOR

You've heard a lot about electric operation—but remember that a storage battery by any other name is still a storage battery.

ABOX attached to the light socket gives you "A" power, without the interference and trouble of batteries, charger or relays.

ABOX operates any receiver using up to eight tubes, at unvarying, maximum efficiency—without batteries. In this it challenges comparison for efficiency, economy and length of life.

Electric radio operation is here! Convert your own set with ABOX and get radio satisfaction and carefree operation, possible in no other way. No changes in your set are necessary to do this.

The ABOX Filter is an entirely different unit from the Eliminator, being the filter circuit alone in a small, compact unit. If you have a suitable charger, it can easily be converted into an "A" Eliminator by substituting the ABOX Filter for the storage battery. Shipping weight, 11 lbs. Price, $19.50. Slightly higher west of the Rockies.

Claims vs. Facts

Commander Sport Roadster, $1595 f. o. b. factory

The dictionary is open to every one. Hence the glittering generalities quoted below from the advertising of manufacturers selling cars in the Studebaker price class or above it.

But not one of these claims is supported by facts such as those here printed concerning The Studebaker Commander.

"— power which is usable at constant high speed for hours —the world's fastest car in a day's run."

"It mounts to high speed with greater smoothness and rapidity than any other stock car in the world, regardless of size, number of cylinders or price."

"more power at all speeds and much greater power at high speeds."

"It would perhaps be physically impossible for any automobile to pass it on any ordinary road."

"world's smoothest and quietest performance...finest, fastest cars in _____ history."

"Performance and luxury not approached by any car at anywhere near its price."

"For every phase of performance _____ for 1928 is equally adept—in the ease with which it attains, and maintains, the highest speeds—in the way it breasts the highest hills."

"For high, sustained efficiency, mile after mile, year after year, the _____ motored car has set high standards all its own."

A Contrast

In contrast to the above claims consider the definite facts printed opposite this column.

Consider that Studebaker cars are built by a corporation with a 75-year record of honest manufacturing and selling.

Consider that some of the above claims are made for cars with special high compression engines which demand extra priced fuel, but that Studebakers give their great performance on ordinary gas.

Consider that the Dictator, Commander and President are engineered and built and broken in to run forty miles an hour from the day you buy them.

Consider these low One-Profit prices, made possible by $104,000,000 actual net assets.

NEW LOW PRICES

The Dictator	$1165 to $1295
The Commander	1495 to 1625
The President	1795 to 2250
Erskine Six	895 to 965

All prices f. o. b. factory, including front and rear bumpers and 4-wheel brakes

STUDEBAKER COMMANDERS

[Stock cars, fully equipped, and run under the supervision of the American Automobile Association]

Break 11 more records

1000 MILES at 75.365 miles per hour (also 5-mile, 10-mile, 50-mile, 100-mile and 500-mile records)

24 HOURS at 75.623 miles per hour (also 1, 3, 6 and 12 hour records)

TWO Commander roadsters were started at the Atlantic City Speedway October 6, 1927, under the supervision of the American Automobile Association. Not one, but both of them, established new stock car records for 1000 miles and for 12 hours and for 24 hours.

Neither of these Commanders required any mechanical attention during the entire run. After finishing the 24-hour grind the winning car spurted 15 miles at 82.62 miles an hour. Harry Hartz, Ab Jenkins, Ralph Hepburn, Jimmy Gleason and Eddie Hearne were the drivers.

The Commander now holds all stock car records for periods up to 24 hours and distances up to 1000 miles—the 5, 10, 50, 100 and 500-mile and the 1, 3, and 6-hour marks being set on October 13.

Other Speed and Endurance Records Set by The Commander This Year

5000 miles in less than 5000 consecutive minutes—April, Culver City, Calif., under A. A. A. supervision.

New York Harbor to San Francisco Bay, 77 hours and 40 minutes—new coast to coast record set in September.

First and second places in 75-mile stock car race at Atlantic City under A. A. A. supervision on Labor Day.

First, second and third places in 75-mile race for stock cars listing below $2000—Charlotte, N. C., September 20th, certified by A. A. A.

Climbed Pikes Peak in 22 minutes, 47 seconds—new record for stock cars priced below $3000. Supervised and certified to by A. A. A.

The Studebaker Commander, "greatest achievement of post-war automotive engineering," is the creation of the finest research and engineering organization ever assembled by one company.

D. G. Roos, chief engineer, and W. S. James, research engineer, have not only splendid new laboratories and a million-dollar proving ground to work with, but also staffs of experts in every phase of automotive design.

—and Sales Records

The Commander shows a greater gain in sales this year than any other car in its price class.

And in its power class—it outsells the combined totals of all the other cars in the world of equal rated power.

At its new low One-Profit price you can't afford to ignore a car which offers not only great power but comfort, riding ease, luxurious equipment, gasoline economy, and low repair expense.

Let us loan you a Commander—America's champion motor car—to tell you its own story of performance.

THE GREAT INDEPENDENT

Donnelly Given Much Recognition By Insurance Men

In the third and final daily issue of The Insurance Field, widely known insurance publication, there appears the report of the third day of the recent convention of the National Association of Life Underwriters, held at Memphis, Tenn., which M. J. Donnelly of this city attended as a representative of the Edward A. Woods Company Agency of the Equitable Life Assurance Society.

There appear in the issue several items of interest concerning Mr. Donnelly, including a picture under which it tells of his being a member of the charmed circle of million-dollar producers.

In the issue appears the following: "M. J. Donnelly of New Castle, Pa., the biggest producer of the group (Million Dollar Round Table) seemed to be most modest. He refused to tell about his $36,000,000 group case, and said that the greatest thing about this meeting was the effort to raise the standard of life insurance agents. He moved that the million dollar group notify the association that it heartily endorse the idea of better education for agents."

It also mentioned his talk on "How I Sold An Income Policy." It also mentions that the Million Dollar Group passed a resolution endorsing and recommending the idea of every member making immediate application for "Accredited National Association Underwriters" with the ultimate end of acquiring the degree of "Chartered Life Underwriter." Mr. Donnelly had an important part in this move.

King Boris Will Attend Wedding

(International News Service)

ROME Oct. 27—Announcement today that King Boris of Bulgaria will go to Naples to attend the wedding of the Duke of Puglie of the Italian royal family, was accepted as confirmation of reports that Boris is engaged to Princess Giovanna, youngest daughter of King Victor Emmanuel of Italy. Boris is the only batchelor king in Europe. Recently when he visited Italy it was reported that he was trying to arrange with the Italian royal family for an alliance with the princess.

Sao Paulo, Brazil has started to straighten and canalize the Tiete river so as to redeem an area of ten square miles frequently flooded the entire project to be paid for by selling the land thus improved.

Waits 15 Years To Eat Fried Onions

"For 15 years everything I ate turned sour in my stomach. Even a drink of water often made me sick. I suffered from gas and had dizzy spells all the time. It was common for me to go for days without a bowel movement. But since taking Adlerika, I feel like a new woman. I eat anything I want now, even fried onions. I sleep better and my nervousness is almost all gone. My weight has increased 18 pounds. Now I do all my own housework and life is worth living again. In my case, Adlerika has been wonderful."—Mrs. L. L. Branton.

As gently and naturally as taking a drink of water, Adlerika acts upon BOTH upper and lower bowels, bringing quick relief from gas bloating, intestinal stasis and chronic constipation.

The very FIRST dose of Adlerika often brings out astonishing amounts of old waste matter from the intestinal canal. This poisonous matter may have been in the intestines a long time, causing gas, headache, sleeplessness and many other symptoms. A treatment of just a FEW weeks with Adlerika often brings great permanent improvement in cases of so-called stomach trouble.

What Doctors Say

Dr. H. Louis Shoub, New York, states: "Adlerika, in addition to its intestinal cleansing action, tends to check the growth of intestinal bacteria."

Dr. A. J. Lancaster, a physician of over a quarter century's experience, says: "In the treatment of gastro-intestinal disorders, Adlerika has no equal."

J. E. Puckett, writes: "After using Adlerika, I feel better than for 20 years. Awful impurities were eliminated from my system."

Dr. Carl Weschcke, graduate of Heidelberg University, Germany, first perfected Adlerika. It is a compound of the best saline intestinal cleanser known to science with glycerine, buckthorn, cascara and other gas-expelling and detergent elements.

Many physicians recognize Adlerika as the one dependable remedy for gas, intestinal stasis and chronic constipation. Unlike most medicines it acts on BOTH upper and lower bowel.

Even if your bowels move every day, Adlerika may bring out poisonous, gas-forming matter which you would never believe was in your system.

No matter what you have tried for the bowels and stomach, Adlerika will surprise you.

INSURANCE MEN HAVE CONFERENCE AT PITTSBURGH

Delegation From New Castle Attends Banquet At William Penn

New Castle's annual death rate of 19.3 persons to every 1000 of population nearly equals that of Pittsburgh and not far short of doubling the general average over the United States, according to Dr. Lee Frankel, former president of the American Public Health association who was the speaker of the evening at the convention dinner of some 400 members of the field force of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, in the William Penn hotel at Pittsburgh.

Julius Blaha, local manager of the Metropolitan company, several of the local field force and guests from New Castle attended the banquet last evening at the William Penn. The guests from this city were Adolph S. Green, president of the Peoples Savings and Trust Company and Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of New Castle schools. Besides Mr. Blaha, the representatives of the company that went to Pittsburgh were J. T. Kelly and Wm. E. Allen, assistant managers and D. L. Cameron, W. G. Ferrell, R. L. Shiner and Martin Shuster, agents of the company.

Dr. Frankel who is now second vice-president of the company said that it is proved that health is a commodity that can be bought and that cities must learn this and must increase their health appropriations to a better proportionate rating with their fire departments.

Among the other speakers of the evening were Mrs. Helen C. LaMalle, superintendent of nursing for the insurance company, A. C. F. Fiske, third vice-president of the company, Harry D. Wright, superintendent of agencies and Dr. C. J. Vaux, director of the Pittsburgh department of public health.

COMMISSION ON SANITY TO BE REQUESTED

Papers are being prepared in behalf of the police department to be presented in court asking that a commission be appointed to inquire into the mental condition of Sullivan or Salvatore McIltrot, held by the police on charges of following and even attacking women and peeping in windows of people in the South and East Side districts of the city.

The papers will be presented in court as soon as an investigation now under way has been completed.

Electrician Has Narrow Escape

"Doc" Rice's Quick Work Saves Man Working In Store

Charles Snyder, well known electrician, had a narrow escape about ten o'clock while doing some work at the Love & Megown drug store on East Washington street, when he grasped a live wire carrying about 440 volts in his left hand and was unable to loosen his grasp.

As he realized that he was unable to loosen his hand and the current went through his body, he called out and J. Myron Rice, a member of the firm, taking the situation in at a glance, pulled the switch and Mr. Snyder was released and saved from serious injury or possible death.

As it was, Mr. Snyder escaped with burns, on his left hand. He was able to continue his work this afternoon.

How Are Your Children?

MAKE THEM WELL AND KEEP THEM WELL WITH

FATHER JOHN'S MEDICINE

UNLESS your children are healthy they will not be happy. For healthy, happy, handsome children give them Father John's Medicine to build new strength and give bright eyes and rosy cheeks.

Father John's Medicine is a tonic food medicine perfectly blended, pleasant to take and easy to digest. Children grow to love it.

Mrs. Henry Desautel, 193 Fisher Pl. N. Attleboro, Mass., writes, "The slogan of our family is, 'take Father John's Medicine and stay healthy.' We have used it successfully for many years. We find that our children put on weight and get more rugged each day while they are taking Father John's Medicine."

The safe medicine for children — no alcohol or harmful drugs—seventy years of success.

Strike Conditions In Colorado Cause Officials Concern

(International News Service)

DENVER, Oct. 27.—Striking conditions at the Lester coal mine of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company near Walsenburg, Colo., assumed serious proportions today with the reported resolve of the I W. W. to stop all operations.

W. T. S. Janes, captain of the guards at the Lester mine, successfully repulsed invading picketers yesterday singlehanded; the first time by beating a picketer with a club and the next by using tear bombs to route nearly 100 strikers.

This angered the I. W. W. officials and they declared, "We've got 50 hard guys on the way to Walsenburg, and when they get here there won't be any of that stuff pulled". They say the "hard guys" are coming from the harvest fields of the Middle West.

The "pilgrims from the north", a body of 50 automobile loads of strikers from the northern Colorado coal fields, are expected to arrive in Walsenburg today. They passed through the Colorado Springs and Canon City fields yesterday without any disturbance.

Warfield will be buried here at two o'clock. Leaders in business and finance will attend.

Says National Guards Needed At All Times

(International News Service)

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 27. — National Guardsmen are as valuable to their communities and to the nation in times of peace as they are in war, Secretary of War Davis told the National Guard Association's convention here today.

Asserting that they were citizens first and military men later, the secretary commented the guardsmen for their conduct and activities in recent emergencies.

"The Mississippi floods and the St. Louis tornado are but outstanding examples."

The National Guard, Davis continued, "has increased in efficiency in a remarkable measure in the last few years. Last year showed healthy progress. Training methods and training management are better than ever before and, as a consequence, training has advanced along logical and progressive lines. The results are most encouraging.

SHARON, Pa., Oct. 27.—Married less than a day, Mrs. Dorothy Edna McNeel, 19, of Altoona, is dead, and her husband, W. Reuben McNeel, 23, is in a serious condition from injuries received when the car in which they had started on their honeymoon overturned on Wallace hill, near here.

Coke Production Shows Decrease

(International News Service)

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 27.—Coke production in the Connellsville region dropped to a new low mark last week, a survey by International News Service revealed today. Production totalled 48,530 tons, the lowest since the strike of 1922, and 2,210 tons below the bottom reached in the slump of 1924.

Merchant output recovered slightly during the week, but plants of the furnace operators further curtailed production until it is nearing the vanishing point.

Only six of the 35 plants of the H. C. Frick Coke Company, the chief furnace interest here, remained in blast, and only 442 ovens are burning at these plants.

Prices remained unchanged from last week with spot furnace coke selling at $2.85 to $3 and foundry coke going at $2.25.

Start Boom For Senator Curtis For Presidency

Believe Senate Leader Will Prove "Formidable" Timber For Office

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—William Allen White, Kansas editor and former Progressive leader, thinks Senator Charles Curtis of Kansas will prove a "formidable" presidential candidate. Curtis has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for president.

"Curtis will be recognized as the U. S. Senate's candidate," said White today. "The political power of the senate cannot be overlooked. It nominated Harding."

White added that no man since the late Penrose has had the power in the senate that Curtis wields "as the official Republican leader of the senate."

"Curtis has been doing favors for senators for years and has asked none in return," said White. "He has been in congress for thirty-three years. He is a good politician. He has a good record. He is honest and he knows every part of the country."

Sophomore-Freshman Reception Given At Shenango High School

One of the first events held in the new auditorium-gymnasium of the Shenango Township Consolidated school was the reception given the Freshman class by the Sophomores on Friday evening.

The auditorium was pleasingly decorated with blue, gold and purple class streamers and all members of the two classes entered into the affair with much enthusiasm and enjoyment.

The program of the evening consisted of many games and singing. John Sarbo accompanied by Miss Margaret Long sang many popular songs. A very delightful luncheon was served by the committee consisting of the Misses Lois Powell, Shirley Lawrence and Lois Fombelle.

The finishing touch of the program was a cleverly portrayed pageant which brought forth many shouts of approval from the gallery. The students are looking forward to many more hours of pleasure in the new auditorium and gymnasium.

Two Slight Accidents Reported To Police

Converse Branscom of 1504 Grimes street, reported Wednesday that he was enroute in his machine on North Jefferson street and was making a left hand turn onto Sycamore way when a car bearing Pennsylvania license 772-500 going south on North Jefferson street, hit and damaged his car.

John Q. Stewart of Enon Valley, reported that his machine was parked on South Jefferson street. He was backing his car out from the curb near Market way when a machine, the license number of which he did not secure and which was driven by a lady, ran into and damaged his machine.

PETER'S ADVENTURES in ANIMAL LAND

BY MRS. FLORENCE SMITH VINCENT

A MOONLIGHT PICNIC AT THE PAW-PAW TREE

"So I saved my life and that darky lost his dinner! Ho, ho! Hee, hee, hee!" chuckled Mrs. Possum, shaking so hard in her glee that her long tail trembled. As for Peter, he laughed till he cried for thinking of poor Uncle Rastus' surprise and anger when that poor old darkey saw his plump juicy roast taking to its heels and jumping out the window.

"What's all the fun?" squealed a little voice close by, and looking down Peter saw a small, sharp nose and two bright eyes peeping up at him from around a corner of the log. Mother Possum saw them, too, and beckoned with her paw.

"All safe, children," called she. "Come out of cover, darlings. There is no one near but Mother and her Two-Legs friend."

Skip! Jump! Over the log the little Possums leaped, just as they had answered her call once before, and in a moment all the little Possums were clustered about their mother.

It was bright moonlight by this time. Farther on in the woods, but yet quite near the little group, was a clearing, and in this clearing stood a single tree, and it was full of fruit—fruit that looked like pears. Peter could see them quite plainly. Mrs. Possum glanced at the patch of moonlight down at her babies.

"What would you chilluns say to a picnic?" asked she.

Each little Possum gave a squeal of delight.

"Oooh! Eeeh! We'd love it!" cried they. "When can we start? Where shall we go?"

"Right off and not far," answered Mother Possum. "The paw-paws are ripe and the moonlight's on the clearing. No time could be better for a feast of fruit. Come along, Boy, if you like. You are welcome, as a guest to our party."

Off started Mrs. Possum, her children trotting close to her heels, Peter, delighted at Mrs. Possum's invitation, bringing up the rear. Straight to the clearing the mother led them—right to the one lone tree.

With a bound Mrs. Possum landed on the lowest limb and shook the branches nearest her with all her might and main. Down rained the fruit — here, there, everywhere. One hit Peter on the top of his head, and raised a bump, and of course that took a little of the pleasure out of the moonlight picnic for the boy. But the small Possums thought the shower the greatest fun in the world, and each little Possum ate as many paw-paws as his small tummy would hold.

Why work so hard on washday?

—Try this "no scrub" way

NO hard rubbing this way. No boiling, even, to heat the kitchen and waste fuel. Just soak and rinse for the whitest, brightest wash ever!

The difference is all in the soap. Use Rinso, and clothes soak whiter than you could scrub them. Millions prove it every week. The makers of 30 leading washing machines endorse Rinso for safety, and for a whiter wash.

Rinso gives thick suds even in hard water. Rich, creamy suds — not frothy soap bubbles. So easy on the hands.

Easy on the clothes, too. They aren't scrubbed thin the gentle Rinso way.

You'll say there's nothing like Rinso, once you've tried it. Why not this next washday. Get it today.

Rinso

The granulated soap that soaks clothes whiter — no scrubbing

English Mayor To Visit Coolidge

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 27.—His worship, I. J. Curwen, mayor of Lancaster, Eng., will take back to his native city with him the bowling-on-the-green championship of Lancaster, Pa.

The British mayor defeated W. Scott Leinbach, this city's champion, 21 to 18, in the game here yesterday afternoon, when the 63-year-old mayor showed perfect form.

The mayor won a cup and a $50 prize.

Today he was to take a motor trip to Washington, where he will be greeted by President Coolidge shortly after noon.

Government May Take Hand In Crusader Case

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27.—Possibility that the federal government will take a hand in the latest disappearance of William L. King, vice-crusading director of the Citizen's League of Pittsburgh and Allegheny county, loomed today with announcement that the government would insist in his appearance in cases where he is listed as prosecuting witness.

King is a witness against a number of alleged violators of federal liquor laws. It was indicated here, the vice-crusader would be sought on federal warrants in case he failed to appear and testify against individuals arrested through his activities here.

Prussia will spend $7,750,000 on harbor improvement in the next few years and $18,400,000 to subsidize the construction of dwellings.

Ladies' Night For Rotarians Friday At The Castleton

Program To Be Presented Following Serving Of Banquet Menu

Ladies' Night will be observed by the New Castle Rotary Club at The Castleton on Friday evening, October 28, for which a fine program has been arranged consisting of dinner at 7 o'clock followed by a social hour in the ball room.

The program committee of the club consisting of Frank Burton, Ralph Bolsinger and S. H. Rhoads has arranged for a dance in the ball room and cards and other entertainment as well as an inspection of the new hotel.

A committee known as the stunt committee has been chosen to present different stunts for the entertainment of the guests between the courses of the dinner. The committee consists of Delace Cole, H. S. Christman and Rex Patch.

Ralph Bolsinger in charge of the musical entertainment is promising several numbers besides the good orchestra for the dinner and ball room.

Social Activities Of Fall And Winter Season Successfully Launched

Yes folks the social festivities of New Castle Circle No. 5, P. H. C. under the auspices of the Booster club was launched on Wednesday night with the opening party of the fall and winter season.

The chamber of the local circle was never more attractive in its Hallowe'en dress and throughout the evening the splendid attendance in costumes indescribable danced to the strains of New Castle's famous orchestra.

Characters of every description, and a difficult task for the judges was to award the prizes for the best impersonations.

These gentlemen, Thomas McCay, J. S. Leslie and Don Johnson were in no way connected with the circle, and after much meditation and deliberation called a halt upon the grand march and awarded the prizes.

Miss Marie Purdy of Freedom Circle captured the first prize for most original costume, while as "One Lung" the laundry man, Mrs. Young secured No. 2.

As a gay and gushing bride, Mrs. Emma J. Goss had them all snowed under with an exquisite bridal gown over 50 years old and veil worn by her great great grandmother. The third prize was awarded our guardion.

Mrs. Etta Welch scored a big hit as a railroader and was not forgotten with a prize.

A little Dutch cleanser was Audrey Maxine Young and with Arthur Coates as the tough kid they received the children's prizes.

A feature of the dance was the past, present and future told by Princess Celeste the only rival of the late Eva Fay.

Madam Celeste was kept busy all evening and this woman of mystery had every one guessing.

Absent readings are to be mailed to the supreme officers regarding the great future of the organization but the supreme auditor Dr. R. G. Baird was on the ground to make sure there was no fake about the madam's work.

About 10 o'clock Officer George Kennedy of the night force, always on the job, came in to have his future told. Being a former detective he was after a clue but after giving the princess the once over he said I was sent up here to see if there was any fake about this thing but this lady is within the law and is inerested in the whole police department especially one of the sergeants.

The first masquerade of the season by the Boosters is only an indication of what will be presented by the club throughout the winter's social life of the Circle of which the committee in charge promise many delightful events. Lillie B. Jones, Secretary.

Farmer and Wife Tell of Relief

The herb and plant juices of which Dreco is made bring relief to both men and women, young or old, for they gently but quickly cleanse the body of all waste matter and end all suffering caused by disordered stomachs, torpid livers, deranged kidneys and constipated bowels.

Mr. Henry Eyster, a farmer living on R. F. D. No. 1, Fishers Ferry, Pa., says, "Seeing how quickly Dreco relieved my wife of nervous disorders, indigestion, headache, constipation, backaches and dizzy spells, I began taking it myself. I used it only as a tonic but it surely did the work for me, building me up in every way and making me feel better, eat heartier, sleep more soundly than I had in years."

Famous Novelist Not Going Blind Doctor Asserts

Newspapers Publish Report That Booth Tarkington Is Going Blind

KENNEBUNKPORT, Me., Oct. 27.—Booth Tarkington, famous novelist of Indiana and Maine, may be going blind as recorded today in New York morning newspapers and elsewhere, but he doesn't believe it nor does his physician, Dr. Charles L. Prescott.

Tarkington has been experiencing trouble with his eyes for twenty years, it was stated at his summer cottage here today. Treatments were given with the result that the novelist does about as he chooses today.

A rooster can't crow unless he rears back—a man can't rear back unless he crows.

Resume Hearing Against Pastor For Misconduct

(International News Service)

CHESTER, Pa., Oct. 27.—Trial of the Rev. Harry H. Crawford, of Philadelphia, on charges of conduct unbecoming a minister, will be resumed today before the Presbyterian Synod of Pennsylvania meeting here in their 46th annual convention.

Crawford may learn his fate tomorrow.

Charged with embracing and kissing women of his congregation, Crawford was convicted on two of five counts by the North Philadelphia Presbytery last spring, and appealed to the higher body. If the conviction is sustained, his friends explained, the pastor will request the General Assembly, highest body of the church to review his case.

Injuries Fatal To Woman Struck By Automobile

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 27.—A coroner's inquest was scheduled to be held today into the death of a woman partially identified as Ellen Tanzay, 29, who died in a hospital shortly after she was struck by an automobile driven by William J. Shieck, 36, here last night.

Schieck told authorities the woman started to run across the street, stepping directly in front of his machine. The impact fractured the woman's skull, both legs, severed her windpipe and caused other internal injuries.

Infant Dies Of Gunshot Wounds

(International News Service)

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., Oct. 27.—The accidental discharge of a shotgun was blamed today for the death of Frederick Mushal, 18 months, of Lilly, near here. A boarder in the Mushal home, Michael Toth, accidentally discharged the gun, the charge striking the infant who was playing in the back yard. It was rushed to a local hospital but died enroute.

Kraft Gives Insight Into Work Of Keeping New York In Flood

By JOHN KRAFT
(Special To The News)

NEW YORK CITY, N. Y., Oct. 27.—While millions of New York City's mass population slumber peacefully the long night through, with perhaps no thought at all as to where their next day's food supply is coming from, hundreds of men in the large wholesale districts in the vicinity of West street and the Hudson river, down at North Moore street and Park Place, and over in Brooklyn, are making ready their produce to supply 10 millions of people in the great metropolitan district.

A family might sit down for dinner the next day, and entirely unaware as to where their food came from might have milk for their coffee that was shipped here from Canada; their butter may have been shipped here from Siberia; their potatoes may have come from Iceland; their fruits from California, and their lettuce from all four corners of the globe, lettuce once being shipped to New York from Egypt.

Make Trip Over District

Students of the economic classes of Columbia University were given an insight to the feeding of New York's millions of people, and the actual work carried on in the wholesale districts of this city here last night, when a special trip was conducted by George G. Royce, assistant in marketing, State Department of Agriculture and Markets, in conjunction with Professor Stryker of the university.

The trip was made in the wee hours of the night when the market men were getting their produce ready for distribution. Leaving Columbia University at midnight, the party was first taken to the New York Central milk station at West 29th street between Ninth and Tenth avenues. Here a government tester spoke to the class, telling in detail how the milk business is carried on in the metropolis. Milk is received daily from Canada and seven states within a radius of 400 miles. Each milk can is carefully tested and okayed before distribution. Four hundred carloads of milk with a capacity ranging from 200 to 300 cans of 41 quarts of milk are received here daily. New York consumes 3,000,000 quarts of milk every single day. Sixty-five per cent of the milk delivered in New Jersey terminals is trucked across to this city.

See Pasteurizing

From the milk station the class was taken to the Dairymen's League Co-Operative Association, where the students were explained the pasteurizing process. Washing of bottles, filling, capping and boxing is all done mechanically and then the milk is ready for delivery.

Gansevoort Market, at West 12th street and West street, enabled one to see the vast amount of produce brought into the Farmers' Public Square by Long Island farmers who would sell to jobbers, the jobbers selling to retailers. From here the class walked through the wholesale and vegetable market, located at North Moore street to Park Place along Washington street. This is one of the largest in the world, occupying 52 acres of land. Hundreds of truckloads of fruit and vegetables were being unloaded and loaded all through the night, and the proprietors of the various wholesale stores were working like beavers to get their produce ready for market.

Where Fruit Arrives

Inspection of the Erie and Pennsylvania railroad piers followed. At these piers the western fruits arrive. These fruits are sold every morning at auction, the highest bidder taking the carload lot or such amounts as are alloted to him. All western fruit is sold by sample and the wonderful display of fruits that greets one's eyes is on the order of a food display at a food show. Special pamphlets are printed daily with the kind of fruit, its number, grade and other details, and the wholesaler by looking through the catalogue knows exactly what he wants to bid for. These fruits are seldom misrepresented.

The Pennsylvania railroad pier is now one of the finest in the world. New additions of 1,000 feet in length were built recently and will be heated this winter to prevent fruit from spoiling as it is held overnight. It was learned here that 220,000 carloads of fruits and vegetables are shipped to New York annually. One pier has a capacity for 800 carloads of produce alone. The fruits are a select type. One box of grapes had been received which contained three bunches only, each bunch averaging 8 1-2 pounds.

The price of fruit depends on the supply and demand. Every carload of fruit must go at auction the next morning, regardless of price. No fruit is held over a single day. Recently when vegetables over-flooded the market, 60 carloads were "dumped". The sender would have had to pay more for freight than it was worth to return them, and inasmuch as there was no market for them, they were thrown away.

Other interesting figures showed that 6,000,000 pounds of butter are imported yearly. Butter has been sent to New York from Siberia, Ireland, New Zealand and Venezuela. Six million pounds of cheese are imported each year. Potatoes are shipped to New York from 22 states of the Union and Canada, Mexico and Ireland. The people consume 262,000,000 pounds of butter each year and 42,000,000 cases of eggs. The figures are startling.

From the piers a jump was made to Brooklyn, N. Y., where the Wallabout Market was inspected. This market is the largest farmers' wholesale market in the country. It was established in 1884. It has space for 400 wagons and trucks. Truck farmers from all over Long Island bring their produce here and sell it in entire lots to jobbers and retailers.

The final point visited on the all-night trip was the Fulton Fish Markets, located on the East river. It was a most interesting sight. Fish from all parts of the world are handled here. Wholesalers pry open boxes that contain 100 pounds of fish and dispose of them to the highest bidders. Fish of every description could be secured there. The fisherman's method of handling was a unique one, large steel shovels being used to fill the scales and to pack barrels with various species of fish food.

At seven a. m. the gates to the docks are opened and fish boats are unloaded. The men with their small trucks make a wild dash for the different boats to get the first load so as to make a quick sale, and ofttimes the fish merchants come to near blows over who was in line first. Men and women of all types can be seen in this locality and one is safe to say that it would be unwise to be seen there alone some evening—the result would be a "sock" in the head with a lead pipe—and a surprise awakening minus watch, money and other belongings.

The trip at any rate was a most interesting one ,as well as educational, and the party of 40 students, including the writer, expressed their opinion as such—even though it did cut them out of a night's sleep and they had to attend classes that morning.

Add Three Planes To Dry Squadron

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Three fast airplanes were added to the federal prohibition army's air squadron today. The planes were transferred from the areonautics division of the commerce department.

Officials said they would be dispatched to Fort Worth, Tex., and would operate in that state and along the Mexican border. The wide, unguarded expanse of international border makes airplane scouting essential in anti-smugling operations.

Inventor Makes Shoes That Walk On Water; Will Soon Stage Race

(International News Service)

VIENNA, Oct. 27—Walking on the water is an almost everyday affair at Klagenfurt, according to a report reaching Vienna from that city. Thanks to the invention of a construction engineer, A. G. Kollman it is now possible for any person to walk across a river or a lake if the wishes.

To demonstrate that he means business Kollman recently donned a pair of his water shoes and walked across the Worthesee, a lake near Klagenfurt, several miles wide.

The "shoes" are of course, rather large; but according to the statements of Kollman and a number of friends who witnessed his test they are not very clumsy or difficult to wear, so long as the water does not get too rough.

By next summer Kollman hopes to have finished a few new improvements which will make the shoes more comfortable. He also hopes to stage an experimental race on the Woerthesee.

Plans are under way in Germany for the building of 80 more moving picture theatres to seat 100,000 people and in Great Britain 20 theatres are to be built with an average seating capacity of 2,500.

Life actually prolonged!

By keeping the system cleansed of poisons

MEN of science are constantly working on a problem vital to the human race—longevity! They find that one of the surest ways to increase your span of life is to keep the intestines cleansed of poisons due to wrong habits of living and eating and to delayed elimination. They find everybody in danger of this condition—everybody suffering from it at times.

Many of our foremost scientists recommend the use of Nujol as a harmless corrective and preventive. For Nujol does both things for you because it has the peculiar quality of not being absorbed by the system at all. But Nujol does absorb body poisons. Carries them away right out of the system. Corrects internal difficulties. If taken faithfully Nujol makes impossible delayed elimination and the absorption of poisons into the blood. Thus it acts as a preventive. Your whole system will benefit if you learn to use Nujol whenever you feel the need of it. Nujol is so safe that babies, old people, and sick people can take it too. Ask your doctor about it. He'll tell you it can't hurt you. It's not habit-forming, contains no drugs or medicine. Perfected by the Chemical Products Division of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

Nujol contains no drugs or medicine. It is different from anything else. Absolutely pure and safe to take under any conditions.

You can get Nujol at any druggist. The genuine product comes in the famous Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay—get a bottle at once.

Good News for Expectant Mothers

Doctor's Discovery Relieves Much Unnecessary Suffering

IT has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering experienced during expectancy, as well as at childbirth, is entirely unnecessary.

Dr. Holmes' discovery, "Mother's Friend," aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth!

Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., writes: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used "Mother's Friend" and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes."

Start using Mother's Friend tonight—the sooner the better and write for free booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" (sent in plain envelope). Mother's Friend is sold by all drug stores.

Comfort Ends there too with Many Men

The makers of The Doctor Shoe claim it will properly fit more feet. and thereby prevent, relieve and cure more foot troubles than any other so-called "orthopedic" or corrective shoe on the market.

We are authorized to sell this shoe under a written and signed guarantee as follows:

GUARANTEE OF SHOE SATISFACTION —THE DOCTOR SHOE

This sale is made with the understanding that if FOR ANY REASON you are not fully satisfied, we want you to return these shoes for adjustment, or for full refund of purchase price if desired. YOU are to determine the VALUE of the shoes to YOU, and final settlement will be made on that basis without argument or embarrassment.

Regardless of what your "shoe experience" has been; regardless of the STYLE, or the MAKE, or the PRICE of the shoes you have been wearing—why not drop in some day and try on a pair of Doctor Shoes or Oxfords? There will be no obligation on your part and no "high pressure" sales effort on our part—just a friendly, cheerful showing of a shoe that is worthy of your consideration. The price is reasonable too.

If values mean anything to women of New Castle, Neiman's should not be able to handle the crowds tomorrow. Here, right at the beginning of the season when all over the country regular prices are in force, Neiman's offer you the opportunity to purchase New Winter Coats at unusual savings.

Not alone are Neiman's supreme in value giving—but in size and variety of assortments, they are in a class by themselves. A store full of coats representing the style creators of the world and offered at prices that create new record for values at the beginning of a season.

Neiman's state that never in any season have they assembled such a representative assortment of truly fine garments. There are many reasons why they were fortunate enough to obtain these extraordinary values for the women of New Castle, but after all, the women of New Castle are mainly interested to know that they will be able to buy coats at Neiman's tomorrow that have not been equalled for the past ten years at the price. And they only hope that every woman in New Castle and for miles around will take advantage of the great opportunity they have placed before them.

Last Monday the first of the coats began to come in from the manufacturers in New York. As the coats reach the store each was thoroughly inspected to make certain that they fully maintained the high standard of quality which Neiman's coats always maintain. When found satisfactory they were marked and put in stock for you to choose from in the great record breaking sale event tomorrow, Friday.

COATS FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Every New Style and All Wanted Colors

Best Material and Handsome Fur Trimmings

You'll find coats for all occassions. Coats for sport wear. Coats for general wear. Coats for business. Dressy coats, plain or elaborately trimmed.

Every new style is being displayed in Neiman's great coat sale and best of all, in all sizes for women, misses and stylish stouts. Every new and wanted material of the season in all the leading shades. Coats this season are lavishly trimmed with fur. Any woman attending Neiman's coat sale should be able to find a coat to suit her taste and the right style no matter what size she might wear. Better make arrangements to be there tomorrow while the assortments are complete.

The Weatherman Says Colder

Jack Frost is now overdue, but he's coming and when he does—Oh—watch out—you'll need a new Fall or Winter coat sure as anything. Better hurry to Neiman's and pick one from the lot they just purchased at less than wholesale prices.

Take Advantage Of Neiman's Lay-Away System

A Small Deposit Holds Any Garment

Neiman's state they will allow their lay-away system to be taken advantage of during this coat sale. So everyone will have a chance to get a coat during their great coat sale tomorrow, Friday. A nominal deposit will hold any coat until called for.

Neiman's Announce Their Entire Regular Stock Also Included

All New Fall and Winter Coats In The Store Go On Sale

Women of New Castle well know the wonderful values that Neiman's have offered this season in New Fall and Winter Coats. Including their regular stock with this large purchase will make this event of double importance.

Neiman's buy coats that maintain only the highest of quality and the majority of women who buy them come back every time they need a new garment. That is the highest recommendation that any clothes can have.

The reliable manufacturers with whom Neiman's do business are on the most friendly basis of business relationship. They co-operate with them to the utmost.

Neiman's carry complete lines of highest quality apparel the whole year round. Large women, extra large women, stout women or regular built women can always find a satisfactory model at Neiman's.

Entire First Floor Will Be Given Over To Coats

Neiman's never had so many coats in their store before. But owing to the size of their store as large as it is, it was decided it would be necessary to use the entire first floor space besides most of the stock rooms. As many racks as possible will be used too on the floor to display the coats in order to make the choosing and selling as easy as possible.

Store Open This Evening From 7 To 9 O'clock, So The Public Can Inspect Coats Before The Sale

Select Your Coat This Evening

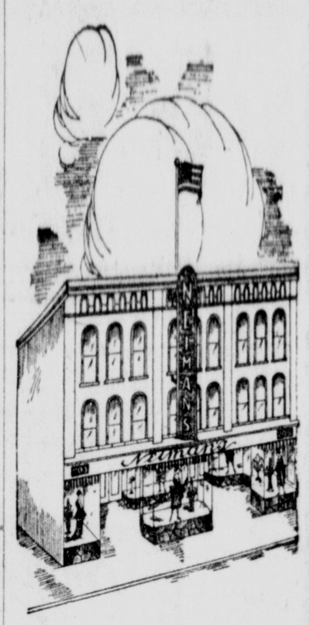
Entire First Floor Used

You Can Choose A Coat This Evening and Have It Held Until Tomorrow.

Neiman's announce that their store will be open this evening from seven to nine o'clock for the public to inspect the coats that go on sale tomorrow, Friday. Everyone interested in coats should attend this inspection.

Coats will be on display on the entire first floor. As many as possible will be displayed on racks so they will be easily seen, the balance will be displayed in the stock rooms.

Neiman's entire sales force will be on hand to show people around thru the stocks. A person may even have the privilege of selecting any garment from their stock this evening and have it held until tomorrow, at which time you can come in and purchase it. This inspection was planned especially for women and girls who for any reason might not have time to spend selecting a coat tomorrow.



Neiman's store, 203-205 East Washington street, second door from Mill street corner, where the Great Coat Sale is being held tomorrow, Friday.

More Coats Than You Ever Seen In Neiman's Before

Neiman's have a wonderful assortment of children's coats in all sizes, 3 to 14, and they also have been purchased especially for their great coat sale. Coats for the Junior Miss in sizes 13, 15, 17 and 19. Coats for Misses, in sizes 16, 18 and 20. Coats for Women in all sizes, 36 to 42. Coats for larger women in 44 to 54.

Neiman's also carry a special line of stout size coats in 1-4 and 1-2 sizes that are especially made to fit stout women of different proportions. Women who wear these sizes should by all means attend their great coat sale tomorrow, Friday.

Great Aim Of Neiman's Store "To Make Our Store Your Store"

To serve—to be of service. That's an ideal worthy of working toward and it is the ideal standard they have set for their store. That is the thought back of all the conveniences and personal services that have been planned for customers and visitors of their store.

The spirit of service is and always has been a fundamental of their business—service in merchandise, safe guarding quality and keeping prices to the lowest level at which quality can be bought, service in equipment and conduct, presenting a comfortable store where it is easy to shop, service that offers you many conveniences that bespeak friendly and hospitable welcome that makes a customer's visit a welcome.

A store is only what the public makes it and Neiman's feel proud of their institution and proud of your part of making a store like Neiman's possible. Courtesy and hospitality are watchwords and service is the thought that governs every activity of their store

Babs Says

Yes! Neiman's have the coats—the biggest variety in all New Castle, for women, misses and children. And there is satisfaction in choosing from their great collection—you are sure to find the size you need in the style and color you prefer. And there is the added assurance of buying at the right price.

Yes! Neiman's are Headquarters for Coats, keep that in mind—be sure and attend their great Coat Sale tomorrow.

SATURDAY IS COAT DAY

Through their advertising Neiman's has featured coats for Saturday during every season of the year. And on that day, more than any other day in the week, they strive to give truly unusual values. In this way they have been able to make Saturday a big day for coat buying. That's why they say, "Saturday is Coat Day" at Neiman's.

All Sizes 3 to 14

Neiman's now carry a complete stock of children's coats in all sizes, 3 to 14. And a special purchase of children's coats together with their regular stock will be included in this great coat sale, tomorrow, Friday.

Beautiful little coats in a great variety of style, plain and plenty of youthful trimmed models. All wanted high shades.

Every mother should take advantage of this opportunity to buy coats for the children at a saving not to be had elsewhere this time of the season. Be sure to take the kiddie to Neiman's Friday or Saturday.

Sale Lasts For Two Days Only

HEADQUARTERS FOR COATS

Neiman's have long been recognized as New Castle's "Headquarters for Coats" because they are "Ready-to-Wear Specialists." Their business is to buy and sell women's and misses apparel and nothing else.

Every season they concentrate their efforts exploiting the merchandise wanted at that particular time. The coat season has arrived and this year promises to be the biggest coat season the country has ever known, even though the season has been backward so far. Neiman's are prepared as never before with complete assortment of coats in all styles, colors, etc., for women, misses, children and stouts. And they have taken every advantage of market conditions to obtain them at lowest prices.

Now you know why Neiman's are known as "Headquarters For Coats." And every woman should make this her headquarters if she wants to buy a fine quality coat at a real bargain price.

Tomorrow, Friday, is a particularly good day to put their values to the test.

OUR BUYER IN NEW YORK

Our buyer has been located in New York since about August 1st. And through his constant touch with the ready-to-wear market and his affiliations with a group of stores with a buying power $5,000,000.00, and personally being the buyer for that group of stores he was able to aid in securing the greatest price concessions ever before granted Neiman's on brand new seasonable merchandise. So you can easily see why you may expect far greater coat values at Neiman's than you could expect to find elsewhere.

Did You See Neiman's Window Display?

Neiman's have their windows trimmed for their great coat sale. With so many coats now in their stock and such a variety of styles it would be impossible for them to display them all. But from the ones now on display in their windows you will be able to see what beautiful coats they are, and the low prices asked for them.

Starts Tomorrow Morning 8:30 o'Clock

BE THERE EARLY

Neiman's will be ready for capacity crowds when their doors swing open tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock sharp. But they urge as many as can arrange to come in the morning, for no doubt the afternoon crowds will be enormous. New Castle women will witness a sale, the like of which has never been seen in New Castle before.

Neiman's have held big coat sales before but they have planned to make this the greatest sale of them all, in every detail. All you will be able to see will be coats, coats, coats. And you will want to look them all over before buying. There is no doubt in our mind that Neiman's will be crowded the entire day from the minute the doors open. But no matter what time you get there they are sure to have plenty of coats for you to choose from.

A Two Day Event

Neiman's state that their great coat sale will run for two days only, Friday and Saturday. Therefore, no economical woman in New Castle or Lawrence county can afford to miss this unusual opportunity to buy her new Winter Coat at an extraordinary savings.

OUT-OF-TOWN CUSTOMERS

Neiman's especially urge their out of town customers to attend their great coat sale and get their share of the wonderful values offered. They're sure you will not find values to equal them elsewhere, and it will be well worth your while to come to Neiman's tomorrow, Friday.

Tell Your Friends

If you have a friend who has not heard about the great coat event tomorrow, Friday, at Neiman's you ought to tell her about it. Don't have her say to you after it is all over, 'Well, why didn't you tell me about it."

$55.00 TO $65.00 SAMPLE COATS TO BE SOLD AT $39.50

$65.00 TO $79.50 SAMPLE COATS TO BE SOLD AT $58.50

EXCLUSIVE ONE-OF-A-KIND COATS TO BE SOLD AT $69.50 TO $89.50

Prepare To Handle A Large Crowd

Extra Salesladies

Neiman's have made preparations on a larger scale than ever before to handle the crowds they will have tomorrow.

There will be plenty of extra salespeople in addition to the regular force.

They have also obtained the services of an expert fitter with years of experience who now has charge of the alteration room. Everything has been prepared so that women can pick their coat, have it properly adjusted and the sale made in the shortest time possible.

The entire Neiman organization is enthused over this great sale, and agree that the values offered are the most unusual they ever witnessed.

FURS USED EXTENSIVELY

Fur trimmings are being used on the coats this season more extensively than for many seasons passed.

Coats with fur collars, cuffs, borders, tabs, etc. of squirrel, beaver, fox, oppossum, grey wolf, badgers, etc., can be seen when you inspect the large assortment of coats that Neiman's will place on sale tomorrow, Friday.

What Are Samples?

This question is sometimes asked. Here is the answer: Samples represent the manufacturer's "show pieces." That is, much thought and time and energy are expanded in producing sample garments, because the maker must depend on the impression they make on the merchant for the order he gets. If a sample coat, suit or dress has not been carefully made—if the style doesn't measure up to the fashions displayed in the European and American styles Centers—if the workmanship isn't perfect—if the quality of materials isn't up to high standard—then the manufacturer's orders from the merchant will suffer. This being the case you can understand why samples are the very cream of the manufacturer's productions. And at the end of the producer's season, which is the very beginning of the Retail Season, several of these manufacturers allow us to go into their New York showrooms and select a limited number of their display pieces at a reduction of a fourth to a third.

Exclusive Models

Exclusive One-of-a-Kind models come only in the higher priced garments. And Neiman's state that in their collection of coats ranging in prices from $75.00 to $165.00 you will find only One-of-a-Kind models.

The Way of the World

By GROVE PATTERSON

THE HEART IN ACTION

Soon you will look on a motion picture screen and see your own heart pumping blood. The X-ray motion picture is one of the new and remarkable achievements of science. Will that vaster triumph some day come—when we can catch the thoughts and emotions that center in the brain and throw them on the screen under the pitiless light of analysis? What a sad and humiliating day it would be for some of us if our real motives were to come under the white light of a self-revealing camera!

ANGER IS POISON

If men and women only realized that anger is poison and indulgence in it breaks them down, they would be more careful to control their tempers. Anger not only promotes rash and unjust acts, anger not only brings on later humiliation, but it has such a powerful physical effect that it takes the "punch" out of a healthy human being. George Lytton, one of the judges in the Tunney-Dempsey fight, says that Dempsey brought on his own defeat largely because of his inability to control his temper. His anger poisoned him and broke him down.

BETTER FOR ALL

Big business is crowding out little business. The United States is in the first stages of a new economic era in which falling prices in a period of prosperity are forcing the smaller and less efficient firms out of business, leaving big firms stronger than before. In the future there will be more employes and fewer proprietors. For most business men there will be less risk, less worry, less responsibility—and steadier work in middle and subordinate jobs.

These ideas which strike one as both interesting and sound, come from Leonard P. Ayres, Cleveland banker. It is not bad news. If small combinations, it means lower prices, better service, more industrial happiness for a greater number. Always somebody must be sacrificed. The industrial machine, made bigger and operated on a larger plan, will furnish more comforts for more people.

RADIO AND GOOD

The president strikes the right note when he urges that the radio be used more and more in public service and for good purposes. He finds it holds great promise of reaching into the dark places of the earth. We think too much about mere entertainment and not enough about the possibilities of broad, human service that lie in our amazing inventions.

PREVENTING WAR

Always much talk about the prevention of war. War might be prevented easily enough if the money kings who finance it, in all countries, would keep the safe locked while diplomats wrangle. Without big and easy borrowing there can be no war. It is up to the money lenders.

Famous Old Recipe for Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found how to save two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, by using this well-known old recipe for making cough syrup. It is simple and cheap but it has no equal for results. It gives immediate relief, usually stopping an ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.

Get 2½ ounces of Pinex from any druggist, pour it into a pint bottle, and add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. If you prefer, use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, it tastes good, keeps perfectly, and lasts a family a long time.

It's truly astonishing how quickly it acts, penetrating through every air passage of the throat and lungs—loosens and raises the phlegm, soothes and heals the membranes, and gradually but surely the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough disappear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness or bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaiacol, known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Ladies Orchestra With Beggar's Opera

Orchestra Modeled After That Used In Eighteenth Century

A Ladies Orchestra modeled after that used in the 18th century is to accompany the Beggar's Opera at the performance here next Tuesday at the Scottish Rite Auditorium. This is extremely unusual, but these women, all fine professional musicians, travel constantly with the play.

The personnel is as follows: harpsichord, Hazel Gruppe, 1st violin and viola d'amore, Jean Stockwell, viola, F. May Taylor, violoncello, and viola di gamba, Sadie Tilkin, double bass, Irene Scott, oboe, Grace Campbell, flute, Rose Fishbein.

The musical director is Sebastian Unglada and the entire production will be given in New Castle, by the same cast throughout as will appear in all of the large cities of the country on this coast to coast tour. While it is 18th century in most every respect, it has a phenomenal appeal to the modern audience. After its most recent New York appearance the Evening Globe said, "It is a gay and racy old musical show with more charm, satire and sweet tunes than reaches Broadway in six seasons."

A good memory gets a man into lots of trouble. It is always springing things on him he thought he had forgotten.

Virtue is its own reward. Many a person is too good to tell a lie, even to save a friend.

Plan Air Circus At Lakehurst, N. J.

Entire Day To Be Taken Up With Various Stunts By Daring Fliers

(International News Service)

LAKEHURST, N. J., Oct. 27.—A program scheduled to begin at eight o'clock this morning and to continue into late afternoon was in order here for Navy Day today.

At eight o'clock a kite balloon was to be sent out and a dummy parachute dropped from it at high altitude. One hour later the semi-rigid J-3 was to take off for a flight.

Clouds will be needed for the next scheduled event. The naval authorities of Lakehurst have been experimenting with a device that projects electrically-charged particles of sand from a tank under the fuselage into cloud formations and is said to dispel the clouds. It has been tried with lesser success on fog banks. A demonstration was scheduled for 10 o'clock.

Alva F. Starr will head a group of parachute jumpers in a thrilling exhibition, taking off from captive balloons and the J-3. One man may leap from the dirigible Los Angeles.

Great Anxiety Shown In Rome

Many Keep All-Night Vigil At Steamship Office To Learn Of Sea Tragedy

AWAIT REPORT OF CAPTAIN OF SHIP

(International News Service)

ROME, Oct. 27.—With latest information placing the number of missing in the sinking of the Princepessa Mafalda at 68, general relief was felt here today.

However, anxious lines of relatives and friends of the crew and passengers aboard the Mafalda maintained their night-long vigil at the office of the Navigazione Generale Italiana and at newspapers.

Definite official figures were lacking in all quarters where the report of Captain Simon Gali was awaited anxiously.

Premier Mussolini personally requested minister of communications Ciano to keep him constantly informed of the latest bulletins, Ciano said.

"While we deplore the accident we are thankful that another terrible marine disaster was averted by the promptness with which ships in the vicinity rushed to answer the distress calls of the Malfalda."

The Vatican requested the Papal Nuncios at Rio De Janeiro and Buenos Aires to forward the names of priests aboard the Mafalda.

Newspaper published editorials counselling the people to bear up under a tragedy which could have been worse.

"Popular Photo Day", recently introduced in Dresden, has not only caused camera owners to make collections of amateur snapshots of relatives and friends, but has inspired many to have professional photographs made.

DRUGS EXCITE THE KIDNEYS, DRINK WATER

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble because we often eat too much rich food. Our blood is filled with acids which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, begin drinking lots of good soft water and get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine.

This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer are a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

There are two more days of the campaign to raise the quota of this city for the Community Chest for the year. Several hundred men and women have been working hard to put the campaign over, devoting their time to this work and they are deserving of a response from the community that will mean a sucessful campaign. Many have contributed a small amount to this campaign who should increase the sum before the campaign closes and many who have not contributed at all should hasten to get in under the wire and meet this pressing obligation.

New Castle police are exactly right in holding in custody the man accosting women on the streets and peeping into windows until a commission examines into his sanity. Such a person is a menace to be at large and should be properly taken care of. Accosting women on the streets and creating something akin to terror in certin sections of this city is not a thing to be lightly disposed of. The police are to be congratulated in capturing the person believed to have been responsible and the case should not be disposed of without being properly taken care of so that there will be no repetition of the practice.

Fire Chief Lynn's warning that sending in false alarms of fire a stunt that has apparently developed within the past few days by gangs of Hallowe'eners is about as dangerous as could be imagined. Not only is it a most serious offense for any one caught in the act but it is also fraught with danger to many other persons who figure on traffic at the time the alarms are sent in. Cut it out boys!

Reassurance by Frank N. Johnson, game protector that the bunnies in this area are not suffering from fever as has been reported in some sources will be received by enthusiastic hunters with gratification. Many Lawrence county residents secure a lot of sport and pleasure in the annual hunt and with the fall hunting season nearly here the reports about he rabbits tended to take a lot of enthusiasm out of the coming season.

Pile Sufferers

Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?

Why cutting often fails?

Do you know the cause of piles is internal?

That there is a stagnation of blood circulation in the lower bowel?

Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr. Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by McKee's Kut Rate, Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc., and druggists everywhere, that is guaranteed.

HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, quick and lasting relief to thousands of pile sick sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation. There is no reason why it should not do the same for you.

Name Delahunty Class President

Indiana Youth To Lead First Year Class At Westminster

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 27. — Kenneth Delahunty of Indiana, Pa., was elected president of the freshmen class at Westminster College in the balloting held yesterday, at the conclusion of the chapel services. "Kenn" Delahunty, a modest, unassuming lad, had little opposition for the position, winning handily over the other candidates.

The other class officers elected were: Miss Mary Purvis, Butler lass, who was selected as vice president; Herbert Miller of Rutherford, N. J., chosen for the treasurer position; and Paul Quimby, Sharon lad, winner of the vote for secretary.

At the same time announcement was made of the selections for the freshman committee of athletics which handles all the athletic relations that are traditional between the yearlings and the sophomores. James Mayer of New York City was chosen as chairman of the group. He will be assisted by Albert Reed of New Castle and Arthur Neal, Evans City youth.

Attendance reports from the numerous places where they have played in exhibition games indicate that Ruth and Gehrig, as a result of their present barnstorming trip will be amply supplied with pocket money during a long, hard winter.

THREE APPEALS UP TO ZONING BOARD

Monthly Meeting Of Board To Be Held On Next Tuesday Afternoon

At the regular monthly session of the board of zoning appeals to be held November 1 at 3:30 o'clock in the city council chamber, there will be three cases up for consideration. In each instance the appeal to be heard is in a case where the building permit was refused because of the fact that the proposed building or change to be made in a building already constructed did not comply with the zoning regulations of the district in which the permit was asked.

The first of the three cases is that of E. S. Kahl, 310 Northview avenue. This property is located in a B residence district. The lot in this case extends between Northview avenue and Elizabeth street, there being but 160 feet between these streets.

Mr. Kahl is seeking the privilege of constructing a house 30 by 43 facing on Northview avenue and two houses 24 by 45 facing on the Elizabeth street frontage of this lot. The houses facing Elizabeth street are to contain garages built in them at the rear and with sleeping quarters above. Permit to go ahead with this proposition was refused because of the fact that there would not be the required amount of rear yard room. It was then that Mr. Kahl took the appeal.

The second case up for consideration will be that of W. L. Burford, 726 Arlington avenue, and corner of Wilson avenue, who was refused a permit to remodel his property, in the front part of which he is conducting a grocery store. There is a five-foot porch in front of the building and of that part occupied by the store, and Mr. Burford sought permission to enclose this porch in glass and place shelves along the rear wall of the porch, which is also the front wall of the house. The permit was refused, owing to the residence district restrictions prevailing in that section of the city.

The third and final case to be heard next Tuesday will be that of Carl T. Rohrer, 103 Garfield avenue, who is seeking a permit to allow him to enclose the front porch of his home in glass. The permit was refused on account of it being contrary to the zoning regulations of the district. The appeal was taken in the effort to get permission.

GARDNER

Rev. Theodore Wimer, a returned missionary from Belgium, will preach next Sunday night at the East New Castle mission.

Mrs. Routledge, wife of Rev. J. R. Routledge, pastor of Providence Baptist church, above North Sewickley, will be the speaker next Sunday afternoon at the county home. Mr. Matthews of the Christian Missionary Alliance has been adding much interest to the meetings of late by playing his musical saw.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Alborn of Gardner motored to Beaver county last Sunday afternoon to see their relatives, the Charles Young family, who live near New Brighton.

Mrs. Myers of Gardner went to Pittsburgh last Friday to see her brother, Mr. Hunter, who is in a hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Hay and children motored to Portersville last Sunday afternoon to see their relatives, the Charles Oliver family.

Mrs. John Kirkwood of Gardner was a guest recently of her son Harrison and her daughter, Mrs. Wimer, and their families, all residents of Woodlawn.

Mrs. Norman Walker and children of Youngstown spent last Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myers, of Gardner.

Miss Esther Gibbons, who is an instructor in music at the Ben Franklin Junior High school, brought an orchestra from the Simpson Mission to the county home last Sunday. The music which the boys rendered was greatly appreciated by all present.

Growing Children
sometimes require a tonic as do their elders

"Dear, I want you to know now that S.S.S. has been used for over 100 years—it is made from fresh roots and herbs—growing children sometimes need a tonic, as do their elders—it is helping you, and I want you to take it regularly before each meal."

Try S.S.S. and you will be surprised how quickly your appetite improves. If you are tired, rundown and listless you owe it to yourself and family to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build up red blood corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the body is nourished. S.S.S. is time-tried and reliable, and is unequalled for restoring strength and vitality.

From youth to later years S.S.S. is a proven tonic—give it and take it when a tonic is indicated.

S.S.S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

Scout Troop Is Given Impetus

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 27. — Much impetus has been given to the work in the local Boy Scout troop through the addition of two new members who are also registered in the freshman class in college. The Westminster lads who joined the local troop are Charles Martin of Pittsburgh and Paul Infield of Stoneboro.

Martin has only one test to take in life saving to win the Eagle scout badge which is oneof the highest honors in the organization. Infield is a first class scout and is also working toward the Eagle scout rank. Jack Hulme, head of the local troop, thinks that the presence of the two college lads in the organization will help the troop very much, in that they will be able to instruct the younger members.

A pigeon mutiliated so that it was unable to fly, recently hopped home along the houstops at Sabden, England.

Student Is Killed By Electric Wire

(International News Service)

MEADVILLE, Pa., Oct. 27.—Funeral arrangements were made here today for Walter Ambrowski, 15, of Chicago, killed when he touched a live wire while walking atop a bridge over French creek. Ambrowski was a student at the Polish National Alliance college at Cambridge Springs. He had gone out for a hike.

Life is a grind, but it doesn't always make things smooth.

Bessemer School Activities Of Interest During Week

FOOTBALL

The Bessemer high school football squad is being driven harder than ever in preparation for the game with Union high on Friday.

Union high toppled New Wilmington high last Saturday and as a result the coming game looms as a championship affair with the winner likely to take the class B honors.

The Union team outweighs the Bessemer boys but Bessemer will make up for it speed and fighting ability.

The Bessemer squad has been lucky so far this season, no regular player having been seriously injured. Although Snyder, the regular fullback, has been out with a weak ankle, he will be in shape again for the game Friday.

Indications are that the game will be a "humdinger" so fans of Bessemer and Union, prepare for a treat.

CHAPEL

Last week's chapel was in the form of a Pennsylvania historical program. The entire entertainment was home talent and many had a chance to appear on the stage for the first time this year. It is the desire of the Bessemer authorities that each student should appear before the school body at least once during the term.

As usual the orchestra played several selections. Miss Smith, the senior high English teacher, sang two numbers which were greatly appreciated by the school body. Mr. Colton gave a short, interesting talk on Bessemer education.

"A History of Pennsylvania" was the title of the paper read by Walter Nord. For fear the audience would not catch the significance and importance of the jokes, the reading was illustrated. You should have seen William Penn bargaining with the Indians, or that other picture of him puffing away at a filthy old peace pipe. The old daguerrotype picturing a family group of four Quakers was particularly striking.

Mike Slapnichar read a paper about Benjamin Franklin, it too being illustrated. Almost a loaf of bread was consumed by Ben as he entered Philadelphia for he paused so long under his lady's window.

Eleanor Throop read an essay about the women novelists of Pennsylvania.

After the audience had sung songs by Pennsylvania composers John Radan brought the entertainment to a close with a talk about the Keystone state and a picture of a keystone.

The program was under the supervision of Miss McClelland. The next chapel will be arranged by Mr. McConnell.

STUDENT COUNCIL

To provide for the Hallowe'en parties a student council has been temporarily organized. At this time it is made up of class presidents and club chairmen. At the first meeting on Monday a secretary, Helen Aiken, and president, Oliver Engle, were elected as temporary officers. The council now contains five seniors and two from each of the other five classes. After a constitution is drawn up and adopted a permanent council will be organized and the students, as far as they are able, will control the affairs of the school.

GIRL SCOUTS

The Girl Scout club, under the able leadership of Miss Keys, has been organized again this term. This is the third year for the Girl Scout organization in Bessemer high school.

Officers were elected at the first of the year and are as follows: Chairman, Bernice Anderson; vice chairman, Viola Swanson; secretary, Florence Anderson; treasurer, Dorothy Engle.

The first six weeks have been spent in studying diligently for the tenderfoot test which every girl must pass before becoming a real scout. This test was given Tuesday during activity period; now all of the girls are anxiously awaiting the results.

GRADES

The high schol report cards were issued Wednesday morning. As usual the grades varied from a high "E" to a low "F". While making out the grades each teacher is asked to keep in mind and attempt to follow the "normal curve", thus the grades remain about the same. The change is in the names to which the grades are attached.

ENTERTAINMENT

A fair sized audience gathered in the high school auditorium Monday evening to hear the first number of the lyceum series, "The Old New England Chair." It is a real opportunity for Bessemer people to hear such talent and it is hoped that more will be present at the next number, which is to be December 5, 1927.

STUDENT PARTIES

This year the school is dividing and having two Hallowe'en parties instead of the usual one.

Thursday evening the junior high will have its party in the high school auditorium. The student council ruling concerning the two parties angers the freshmen somewhat but they are lucky to escape the initiation which is the custom on the night of the party.

Members from each class have been appointed to work on the different committees. Great preparations are being made and there is no doubt but that it will be a lively party.

Saturday evening the senior high students will gather for their entertainment. They, too, have been making plans and costumes. For several days the members of the sewing class have been cutting and sewing mysteriously. If prizes are offered it will take a keen judge to decide on the most worthy.

SEW SO CLUB

Tuesday evening the jolly Sew-Soers gathered for their weekly meeting. Misses Smith and Martin were hostesses for the evening. A very pleasurable and profitable evening was spent.

TOWN NEWS

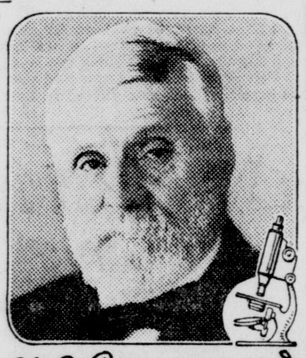
Tuesday night a group of would-be clowns, counterfeit men, ghosts, witches, goblins and "spooks" assembled at the Presbyterian parsonage. In other words, the Ladies Loyal Bible class of Bessemer held a Hallowe'en party at the home of Mrs. Engle. The house was fittingly decorated. As each of the amazing disguises was removed it was found that underneath a human being was concealed. After various games, in which Mrs. Wiesen, Mrs. Lago and Mrs. Marshall won prizes, refreshments were served.

Miss Dite's Sunday school class held a party Wednesday evening at the Engle home. The hostesses were Misses Engle, Throop, Macklin and DeArment. The guests were instructed to follow the trail of the Banshee ghosts. This proved very thrilling as the ghost guide called out some of his fellow comrades from the cemetery. A typical Hallowe'en lunch was served on their return. Their evil fortunes were left by a Banshee witch and everybody reported an enjoyable time.

There were several young people from Bessemer present at the Mahoning district young people's Hallowe'en party last evening. The Westfield grange hall, the meeting place, was prettily and quaintly decorated with corn, leaves and other Hallowe'en oddities. As the different asosrted apparitions at once ludicrous and amazing were unmasked there were exclamations of delight and amusement. When the party broke up, late in the evening, the participants went hom much better acquainted with the other young people of the district.

The Christian Endeavor rally will be held this year at the Princeton Presbyterian church Friday, October 28. The rally opens at 7:30 p. m. This rally is a contest between the different Endeavors in Lawrence county. Last year the Westfield Endeavor won the banner and Bessemer the shield. If Bessemer wins the shield this time they will get to keep it. Several very interesting talks are to be given and later in the evening a lunch will be served.

Doctor Found Women and Children Sick More Often than Men



As a family doctor at Monticello, Illinois, the whole human body, not any small part of it, was Dr. Caldwell's practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

In the course of Dr. Caldwell's 47 years' practice (he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875), he found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year his prescription was first placed on the market.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in Dr. Caldwell's private practice. Now, the third generation is using it. Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it. Millions of bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin are being used a year.

Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and we have gotten many hundreds of letters from grateful people telling us that it helped them when everything else failed.

While women, children and elderly people are especially benefited by Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, it is promptly effective on the most robust constitution and in the most obstinate cases. It is mild and gentle in its action and does not cause griping and strain. Containing neither opiates nor narcotics, it is safe for the tiniest baby. Children like it and take it willingly.

Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Keep a bottle in your home,—where many live someone is sure to need it quickly.

We would be glad to have you prove at our expense how much Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can mean to you and yours. Just write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, and we will send you prepaid a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE.

Believe Substitute For Rubber Found

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON Oct. 27—What appears to be a satisfactory substitute for rubber has been discovered by the Bureau of Standards, it was announced today.

It is called Guayule rubber and is produced from a shrub grown in Mexico and California. Investigation to find a rubber substitute was ordered by the commerce department in an effort to break the British monopoly on plantation rubber.

Further tests will be made to determine the commercial possibilities of guayule rubber.

B. J. Bell Is Elected To Head Young Mens' Republican Club

Organization Is Launched At Meeting On Wednesday Night

Large Organization Meeting Will Be Conducted Tuesday Of Next Week

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 27.—Republicans of Ellwood City met last evening in the First National bank building, and perfected an organization for the Republican club of Ellwood City. A large number of Republican leaders were present and all voiced their approval of the plans as presented. The club will work for a united campaign for the Republican ticket, city and county-wide.

Burton J. Bell was elected president of the new organization with Connie Wardman as vice president. Joseph Cain was selected as secretary and Clyde B. Houk as treasurer. The executive committee of the club will include J. W. Offutt, J. C. Camp, C. O. Davidson, Patsy Boccardi, S. D. Coates, H. D. Cunningham, Dal Buquo, Charles Steiner, H. J. Jenkins, Ed Workley and Roy Hazen.

The club executive committee will meet in session on Saturday evening of this week. Kenneth Fox has been appointed as director of publicity.

The Republican club of Ellwood Citly fills a long needed organization for the party in the city's political life. Party differences will be settled in its organization, and the best trained and equipped candidates will be endorsed and supported by the club in future political battles of the city and county.

Plans are being made for a large organization meeting on Tuesday evening of next week. It is also thought that the club will have a fine demonstration before the election on November 8.

Among those who attended the organization meeting were J. W. Offutt, C. C. Davidson, Burton J. Bell, Frank Blackburn, Connie Wardman, Charles Steiner, Ben G. Swick, Frank Biordi, A. Biordi, David Jones, Patsy Boccardi, Henry Passamore, George Rapp, Kenneth Fox, Capt. H. J. Jenkins, Joseph Cain, Clyde Houk, J. C. Camp and D. C. Hancher.

Workman Is Killed When Trestle Falls Crushing His Skull

Joseph Ricenti Meets Death At Shelby Tube Plant On Wednesday Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 27.—Joseph Ricenti, aged 51 years, was instantly killed at the Shelby Tube plant, where he was employed, yesterday afternoon when a large trestle fell upon him and crushed his skull. Ricenti, with another workman, was in the act of moving a large iron trestle. It was too heavy for two men to handle and was thrown over. Ricenti was knocked down. His head was caught between the trestle and the floor and badly crushed. The body was taken to the Vangorder morgue. Ricenti, who lived at 303 Division avenue, leaves a wife and seven children. Coroner J. P. Caldwell was called and gave a verdict of accidental death. Funeral services have not yet been definitely arranged, but will probably be held tomorrow morning from the Italian Catholic church.

Announce Names Of Boy Patrolmen

School-boy Patrol Idea Originated In Detroit And Grows Rapidly Each Year

ELLWOOD CITY, Oct. 27.—During the past week the Ellwood City Motor Club presented each of the patrol boys who have been assisting the local police in handling traffic about the schools when students are being dismissed with white Sam Brown belts and schoolboy patrol badges similar to those given by motor clubs of larger cities.

The schoolboy patrol idea originated in Detroit several years ago and is cutting down the number of accidents of school children considerably and Ellwood City is proud of the record of three years of schoolboy patrol work without an accident.

The boys doing the patrol work at the schools are as follows:

Circle school: Mervin McCormick, Joseph Metza, John Neghui, Robert Stevenson.

Hartman school: Wilbert Keller, Albert Eidenmiller, David Williams, Elmer Scrima, Donald McDonald.

Lincoln school: Fred McConaghy, Sam Schardone, John Schweitzer.

North Side school: Robert Buquo, Robert Wayman, Ernest Babcock.

Probe Report Of Eye Witness To Brutal Slaying

Say That Murder Of Dr. Lilliendahl Was Witnessed By Some Unknown Person

(International News Service)

MAYS LANDING, N. J., Oct. 27.—Reports that there was an eye witness to the murder of Dr. William Lilliendahl, slain in his automobile on the Atsion road near Hammonton last September 15, were being investigated again today. A similar report, was run down shortly after the crime but proved to be unfounded at that time.

County detectives, accompanied by Charles M. Phillips, attorney for Mrs. Margaret Lilliendahl, the doctor's widow, who with Willis Beach, poultry dealer, is held in jail here awaiting trial November 28 on indictments accusing them of murder, have visited the offices of William F. Casey, an Atlantic City motor vehicle agent. The detectives refused to disclose the purpose of the visit. Casey admitted that it concerned the murder investigation, and it was assumed that the men were trying to check up license numbers.

In his cell Beach is becoming temperamental. He asked today for a boudoir lamp and a rocking chair, Sheriff James Cimino said.

"He seems to think this is the Ritz Carlton," complained the sheriff. "He'll get the rocking chair but not the lamp. He doesn't want to mingle with the other prisoners at the showers, either—thinks he ought to have a shower all by himself."

Murphy Company Store To Be Open For Inspection In Evening

New Castle's newest store, the G. C. Murphy Company Five and Ten Cent Store, will open for public inspection at seven o'clock Friday evening. The doors of the new business institution will be opened by Mayor William H. Dunlap and an orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music. Souvenirs will be presented to persons inspecting the store, which has 38 departments.

While the company specializes in five and ten-cent merhandise, there are articles of numerous kinds ranging to one dollar in price. An up-to-date restaurant and soda fountain are features of the store; likewise its music and radio department. The manager of the new store is William A. Knauber, recently of Greenville.

The G. C. Murphy Company operates 125 stores in eight states and the New Castle store will open formally for business Saturday morning.

Says Society Not Party To Aiding Law Violations

According to information which has been received by Sam Abraham, secretary of the Syrian Ray Society, there have been instances in the past in which some people have attempted to use the society as a means of protecting them in law violation.

The practice must be stopped according to Mr. Abraham who said today that the society is organized for the advancement of the Syrian people in this city. Every effort is made to aid a Syrian who is in distress, and an innocent man is given every possible assistance. However the society will not tolerate law violating upon the part of its members nor will it tolerate any member using the society's name as a means of getting out of trouble, according to Mr. Abraham.

UNION-BESSEMER READY FOR GRID GAME

Battle Friday Is Title Affair

Coach Burnham Drills Team For Important Conflict With Bessemer High

GAME SCHEDULED FOR 3:30 O'CLOCK

With the Class B. championship at stake, the Union High gridders were prepared to day to offer battle to the Besemer High eleven at Scotland Lane grounds on Friday afternoon in what shapes up as one of the most important combats of the season. The game is scheduled for 3:30 o'lock.

Coach Burnham will conclude his workouts today for the tilt with Bessemer High and according to an interview the Union High mentor is hopeful that his boys will be the champions tomorrow night. However the Besemer team will offer strong resistance .Bessemer has a most formidable team this year.

"The team shapes up rather well for this important game" said Burnham. "There are two of the players out with injuries, but I expect that they will be able to start the game tomorrow afernoon."

Their spirit keyed up by their defeat of New Wilmington High for the first leg of the championship the Union gridders were quite restless today awaiting the call to action.

It is announced that Jim Rugh, former Penn athlete would handle the game as referee and that Emery would officiate as umpire.

Following is the probable lineups:

Union High.		Bessemer.

Geneva To Meet Bethany Saturday

Valley Eleven Prepares For Hard Battle With West Virginia Team

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., Oct. 27.—Bo McMillin is busy endeavoring to get his Covenanter football squad free from the mental lethargy that seemed to pervade Geneva's team against Waynesburg last Saturday.

Bethany is the opponent next Saturday at Reeves Field. Although Bethany has shown but little strength to date, Nuss's Big Green team, like that of every team in the district, play beyond themselves in endeavoring to down the conference champions and conquerors of Boston College. Another hard battle is anticipated.

Coach McMillin is thinking as far ahead as the Grove City game the following week which promises to be one of the greatest battles ever fought between these ancient rivals. Uppermost in the minds of Geneva players and students is that humiliation of last year's 3-0 defeat must be wiped out. A brisk sale of tickets already prevails for this game and a large crowd is assured.

Three Pennsylvania Grid Teams Ranked With Best In East

Pitt, W. & J. And Penn State Given Recognition By Eastern Experts

New York University Looms Threatening To State College Eleven

By MALCOLM ROY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Penn State, New York University, Pittsburgh and Washington and Jefferson comprise a quartet of eastern football elevens which, though they may not have had the attention directed to them that has placed Princeton, Yale and Dartmouth in the glare of the spotlight, have either already proved their greatness or have all the signs of greatness about them.

Penn State has certainly advanced to a point, despite its unexpected defeat by Bucknell that it can be classed as one of the best elevens in the east without fear of contradiction. Victories over Pennsylvania, which may have been slightly overrated in early season forecasts, and over a highly efficient Syracuse team have more than erased the stigma of that Bucknell beating and have established Hugo Bezdek's eleven among the elect. W. & J. too, has just about proved itself by its triumph over Carnegie Tech and Lafayette on successive week-ends demonstrating that the Presidents are an eleven of real power and likely to be in the balance of the season.

Pitt Untested.

With Pittsburgh and New York University, neither of whom has been beaten, there is much in common. Pittsburgh has played only one game with a team of real power, Carnegie Tech and although it had rolled up a total of 176 points against 7 for the opposition, it is none too firmly established among the mighty. And the same is true of N. Y. U. The New York eleven leads the country in number of points scored having run up 213 in five games with a total opposition score of 19 but in not one of these contests was the power of the N. Y. U. outfit put to a real test. However, both Pitt and N. Y. U. have given every indication of carrying the punch and when the opportunity comes will probably not be found wanting.

Curiously enough the next fortnight will probably see two of the quartet firmly entrenched in the front ranks at the expense of the other two. Pittsburgh plays W. and J. next week and a fortnight hence N. Y. U. and Penn State clash. N. Y. U. must first hurdle the Colgate eleven which it plays in New York this week and Carnegie Tech next week but as neither appears to be as formidable as their 1926 predecessors the indications are that N. Y. U. will still be in the unbeaten class when it takes on Penn State which meets Lafayette and George Washington in the interim.

These two games should develop into about the best of the season unless there is another string of unexpected reversals of form. New York University has potential strength. Only the surface has been tapped in its preliminary games and its veteran backfield composed of Brieante, Conversatile and flashy a quartet as any nor. Scott and Strong is about as that has played since Notre Dame's four horsemen. What N. Y. U. did last season, when it swept everything before it until the final game with Nebraska is recent history and it began playing this year where it left off in 1926. Incidentally the Nebraska-N. Y. U. clash on Thanksgiving day at Lincoln will see the New York eleven keyed up for swift revenge.

W. and J. owes much of its greatness to a smashing good line and a pair of wonderful backs in Amos and Cook. Pittsburgh likewise has a spectacular fullback in Booth and is if anything stronger defensively than W. and J. Although the margin of difference is probably not great and may have disappeared altogether when the two meet. Both have relatively easy games this week-end and should be at their best when they strive for a more conclusive outcome than the 0-0 score which resulted in their 1926 battle.

State Has Strong Team.

Penn State having been through the ordeal by fire twice in its clashes with Pennsylvania and Syracuse appears at the moment to be the strongest of the quartet. Bezdek has developed a hard hitting, hard running and hard tackling team which provides a perfect setting for an exceptionally good, though not sensational backfield, led by Roepke and Hamas. The State attack is as varied as it is powerful and consists of fine passing and a diversified running game.

It is more than probable that the leading team or team of this quartet will claim equal ranking with the top teams of the Princeton-Dartmouth-Yale grouping, when the final play of the season is made. Any team that can make the grade against any one of this Penn State-N. Y. U.-W. and J.-Pittsburgh combination this year will not be far from being top hole, should Penn State dispose of N. Y. U. and Pittsburgh demolish W. and J. the Thanksgiving day battle at Pittsburgh between the Pitt Panthers and Nittany Lions of Penn State would just about be the epic game of the entire season.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Efforts are being made to organize a Class B. league in cities of an average population of 100,000 by M. H. Sexton, Rock Island, president of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues. Erie and Canton have signified their intention of taking out a franchise and efforts are being made to secure Youngstown. Dayton, Richmond and Ft Wayne are also wanted in the league. Should the circuit be proposed as planned it will sound the death-knell of the O. and P. circuit and leave New Castle in the air.

According to reports from O. and P. centers some of the teams had difficulty meeting their payrolls toward the fag end of the 1927 season. It would not be surprising should the local club, in the face of the move now under way, decide to go into baseball on a smaller scale and in the long run make just as much, if not more money. Their payroll was high and their patronage low last season. Were it possible to play a number of games each week at Centennial field probabilities are that the local club would not be averse to entering the Lawrence county circuit.

Walter Johnson has signed a three year contract to manage the Newark International league team according to announcement today from Washington where the "Big Train" has held forth for years. Paul Block, president of the Newark Bears got Johnson to sign through the efforts of E. B. McLean publisher of the Washington Post. The salary Johnson is to receive has not ben made public but his last appearance as a pitcher has not been made. Convinced that he can turn in a few victories for Newark, Walter will take his place on the mound when he believes his arm is needed.

William Harridge, secretary to Ban Johnson for 15 years, may become president of the American league. It is reported that he is favored to defeat. E. S. Barnard president of the Cleveland Indians, in the race for the post. When Johnson stepped out of the league Barnard was picked for his berth but during the past few days there has been a Harridge boom. Selection of Harridge would follow the precedent establised when John Heydler was named the head of the National league. Meanwhile Johnson is enjoying a much needed rest at Excelsior Springs, Mo.

Paul Carr, manager of Jimmy Slattery, has refused an offer of $15,000 to let his Buffalo ghost fight Tommy Loughran. Carr demands $20,000. Clattery was named light-heavyweight champion by the National Boxing association. However the association has never carried the support of fighters or managers. Loughran won the New York state title from Mike McTigue several weeks ago and is generally credited with being the champion. When the fight has been smoked and the public is ready to flock through the turnstiles the managers will sign the fighters will meet and the best fighter will be determined.

Johnson, star guard for Duquesne will probably not get into the Dukes line against Westminster Saurday afternoon at New Wilmington unless reports of his injury during scrimmage yesterday are exaggerated. According to the reports Johnson had a rib cracked and increases Duquesne's hospital list to half a dozen. Buff Donnelli, fullback and star kicker will be in the game which heartens the followers of the Duquesne team. He has saved two games this season for Duquesne his toe having saved the day against Bethany and Thiel.

Versatile Orangemen — By Feg Murray

Versatility is always interesting. That's why athletes like Jim Thorpe, Ernie Nevers, George Lott and Eric Pedley have so popular an appeal. They are good at more than one sport—ometimes shine at three or four—therefore, they stand out above their brethren in athletics who can merely do one thing well.

The Syracuse university football team boasts of two versatile performers, one of whom is the captain, Ray Barbuti, who plays fullback. Ray was a familiar figure during the indoor and outdoor track season, as he dashed around the board or cinder ovals of the east wearing the silks of the Salt City institution's track team. Barbuti was a member of the Syracuse mile-relay team that captured both intercollegiate and one mile relay championships this year.

When the IC4A meet was held last May at Franklin field, one of the favorites to win the 440-yard dash and Cecil Cooke, also of Syracuse, giant negro athlete and a former national champion. But when the race was run, Cooke was not even among the first three, while Ray Barbuti, running the race of his life, captured the bronze medal that goes with third place. Ray can step a quarter in less than 49 seconds, and run a furlong in less than 22, so it is no wonder that he is fast as greased lightning on the football field.

Jacob Patterson, one of the big Syracuse tackles, is another versatile fellow. He is intercollegiate heavyweight wrestling champion, and uses his great strength and powerful hands to bowl over his opponents on the gridiron. Jake was with the Marines during the world war, spent 17 months overseas and was wounded. So what's a mere football game or wrestling match to him?

Syracuse plays Nebraska Saturday, and Barbuti and Patterson will be up against the strongest teams they have faced this year.

Feg Murray Says—

Speaking of underhand deliveries, there are Carl Mays', Betty Nuthall's, that of the guy who deals 'em off the bottom and of the one who escapes from Sing Sing via a tunnel.

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

Howard Jones, one of the famous football Joneses, and the one who once coached the University of Iowa football teams, pays three one-time members of the Hawkeyes pretty compliments by nominating them as all-time all-stars.

The three are Gordon Locke, Duke Slater and Aubrey Devine.

Locke was the greatest fullback ever produced at Iowa, Devine was an all-American selection for quarter in his day and Slater ranked as one of the greatest tackles, by unanimous consent.

Jones calls Devine the most dangerous, the fastest and brainiest quarter he has ever seen; says there will never be another fullback who can hit the line as hard as Locke did, and gives Slater credit for being the hardest hitting tackle he has ever known.

Of Slater, Jones says: "He could knock down two men with one arm and then grab the ball carrier with the other and throw him for a loss."

The eventual disposition of Kiki Cuyler by the Pittsburgh [illegible] going to keep Barney Dreyfuss' club as much in the limelight [illegible] as though it had trounced the waloping Yankees instead of losing four straight.

Scarcely a day passes but what Cuyler isn't taking a different train for some big league city.

All of these trade rumors include some kind of a second baseman as part of the trading material offered by rival clubs. In other words it's a foregone conclusion that when Cuyler goes the Pirates will get, in return, what they needed most last year—and especially in the world's series. That was a good second baseman.

Grantham is a first baseman by profession and desire. He was shoved into the gap at second because he was the only man available, all efforts to promote a new second baseman before the stores closed last summer availing nothing.

A survey of the National league clubs produces very few infielders of the class Donie Bush would hope to get in whatever deal he finally makes. The Cubs might part with Sparky Adams. The Phillies have a great little infielder in Fresno Thompson. There is Eddie Farrell of the manager-tossed Boston Braves and Travis Jackson or Freddie Lindstrom of the Giants might work into Bush's scheme of things, even if he did have to shift his infield.

However, Bush would also like to get a hard hitting outfielder with a strong arm to play center. Lloyd Waner hasn't the powerful whip needed there, although he may develop it.

And Bush could also use a southpaw pitcher of dependable caliber.

Jimmy Welsh, Boston Brave outfielder, is mentioned in the rumors regarding possible overtures for Eddie Farrell. Jess Petty, sturdy southpaw of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is also mentioned.

Only one thing can be taken as positive fact. That is that Cuyler's going to move on.

And that without the jolly public ever knowing the exact truth about the conflict between the little manager and the Kiki one.

Owner Baker of the Phillies is up to his old tricks again, according to rumors emanating from reliable sources in Philadelphia. He wants to change managers to improve his ball club.

According to reports from the Quaker City, Baker would like to come to terms with Stuffy McInnis, manager last season, and release him from his contract which runs another season.

This is almost unbelievable in a way. Baker gave McInnis a minor league ball club and added one good minor league player to it later. The one player was Fresno Thompson, who apparently had learned considerable baseball with Buffalo after being cast off by the Pittsburgh Pirates a year or so before.

McInnis's presence and his labors to rebuild the ball club gained the Phils some attention early in the season and for a time some ball games. The pace was too hot for them, however.

One Philadelphia scribe expresses Baker's policy as follows: "As long as he nets the stockholders eight per cent he's happy."

Grovers To Play Adrian Eleven

GROVE CITY, Pa., Oct. 27.—Coach Gibson of the Adrian College football team and former Colgate University player will bring a squad of twenty-four men to Grove City for the game next Saturday. The Michigan team will make the trip by automobile, stopping in New Wilmington Friday afternoon for a final practice session. On the Adrian squad are three boys from Tarentum. They are Persum, center, Gerisler, halfback and Stickley, quarterback. All three are regulars.

The Captain of the invading eleven is Green, the one hundred eighty pound fullback from Morenci, Michigan. This man attended the Grove City College training camp three years and was compelled to leave because of injuries. He is also the same player who starred against the strong Geneva team two years ago at Beaver Falls. Coach Berry's men will have their hands full with Green who is heralded one of the best fullbacks in the state of Michigan.

Johnson Will Manage Newark

Walter Johnson, Famous Big League Hurler, Signs To Manage Newark Team

By GEORGE BARRY
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—After 20 years under the big top Walter Johnson goes to the minors.

The beloved "Big Train", however, has been spared the usual fate of a fading veteran who slips down the baseball scale until the sand lot boys hammer him to all parts of the field, for he goes to the International league not as a hired hand but as manager of the Newark Bears next season.

A two-year contract has been signed, contingent upon the other major league clubs waiving [illegible] ices. The [illegible] a mere formality, for it is probably safe to say [illegible] performer ever left the big [illegible] more sincere wishes for success than those accompanying "Old Barney". No announcement was made as to salary, but it is understood Walter's contract with Paul Block, the Newark owner, calls for $20.000 annually.

May Pitch.

Walter said today he expected to be a playing manager, that is, he will take his turn in the box when it pleases him to do so.

"I expect to do plenty of pitching," he said. "And I expect to stay in baseball. Twenty years is a long time, the best part of a man's life, in fact, and I've given them to baseball.

"I feel I know more about baseball than anything else. I once thought I'd quit, but I don't believe I could. It gets into your blood, this baseball, and I suppose I shall die in harness like the rest of the old timers.

"Im looking forward to a lot of pleasure managing the Bears. Every baseball player dreams of the time when he can try out his own theories and ideas concerning the game, and now I'm to have my chance."

Walter wound up his big league career in a blaze of glory. True, this year was an unsatisfactory one for the veteran, but it was his pitching in 1924 and 1925 that brought two consecutive pennants to the Washington club. A broken leg early in the season kept the big smoke on the bench through most of this season's play.

New Castle High Gridders Prepare For Peabody High

Coach Bridenbaugh Drives Team Through Hard Workouts This Week

Peabody High Will Bring Fast Team Here To Battle Locals Saturday

Peabody High of Pittsburgh is the grid team scheduled to battle the New Castle High football team here Saturday afternoon, at the spacious [illegible]en Franklin High Stadium. The [illegible]me is called for 2:30 o'clock.

The Peabody team will be strong [illegible]s the indication, at the start of the season the Pittsburghers battled the heavy Steubenville High eleven to a 7-7 deadlock, and since that time the Peabody team has been going along at a fast clip. Westinghouse High toppled the Peabody boys recently for their only defeat to date.

Coach Bridenbaugh is driving the local gridders through several stiff workouts this week, in preparation for the gruelling struggle that is expected on Saturday.

Their winning streak snapped by the 7 to 6 defeat suffered last week at Youngstown, Ohio, the locals will start anew to build up a string of victories. A victory over Peabody High will give the locals another leg in the W. P. I. A. L. trophy chase.

With two league victories neatly tucked away the red and black eleven wil lendeavor Saturday afternoon to make it three straight league wins. Swissvale and Washington High are the two league teams remaining on the 1927 program.

The financial commission appointed in Peru to consider the advisability of a government gasoline monopoly has vetoed the proposal and has proposed instead a consumption tax on petroleum.

More than $100,000 has been lost so far this year by mailbag thefts in England.

GRID CAPTAINS

Hal McCreery, center on the Stanford university football team, was elected captain of this year's eleven at a meeting of the players on October 12.

He is rated as one of the best defensive centers on the coast. This is his third season as a regular.

Stanford went through last season without meeting defeat. They were tied, however, by Alabama on New Year's day.

Airships being constructed in England are expected to carry passengers to Canada or Egypt in two and one-half days, to South Africa in six and one-half and to Australia in 12 and one half days.

Mrs. Richard Stockham and children have returned here after spending several months with the former's parents at Portsmouth, O.

UNDERWOOD-SCHAETTGEN

The marriage of Miss Anna Underwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Underwood of North Beaver township, and Harry J. Schaettgen of Chicago, Ill., took place at 11 o'clock at the manse of the Central Presbyterian church, with Dr. C. B. Wingerd, pastor of the church, officiating, on Wednesday, Oct. 26. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. James Sircy of Columbiana, O., the latter a sister of the bride.

At noon a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Underwood, immediate members of the bride's family being present.

In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Schaettgen left for Cleveland and Detroit, and from there will go to Chicago, Ill., where they plan to make their home.

Wilmington High Plays Zelienople High Saturday

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Oct. 27. — This Saturday the New Wilmington high school football team will journey down the Beaver Valley where they will meet another hard opponent in the Zelienople high school eleven. Coach Wiggins has been working his squad hard this week in an endeavor to iron out the mistakes that cropped out in the Union game. A light practice session tomorrow ends the training for the Zelienople clash.

Despite the fact that all of the Blue and Gold players will be able to play in the Zelienople tilt Ccach Wiggins is not very optimistic as to the outcome. The college town team seems to lose their punch when they get near the opponents' goal line. However, the team showed up well in the last quarter of the Union game and it is hoped that they can get started this week.

Co-Ed Basketball Team Organized

Under the direction of J. A. Altshuler, the Temple Israel Co-Ed basketball team was organized Monday evening. The following officers were elected: president, Miss Bessie Kulkin; vice president, Miss Geraldine Wolfe; secretary, Miss Mildred Levine; treasurer, Miss Minna Levine; captain, Miss Hannah Kulkin, and manager, Miss Sylvia Schlasberg.

Any teams wishing to schedule games with the girls will make arrangements by calling Miss Sylvia Schlasberg, 1384M, any evening between six and seven o'clock.

Quota Club Dedicatory Address To Be Made By Wilmington, Del., Woman

Representatives of Quota clubs throughout the United States, who will be here for the Intercities party, to be staged Saturday evening, October 29, in the Castleton's ball room, will stay in the city Sunday, for the Crawford-Oakridge, home for girls, will be formally dedicated.

It is expected that Mr. and Mrs. John List Crawford, who made the home possible, will be at the dedicatory services.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. White, director in Quota International, will entertain the board of trustees of Crawford-Oakridge, the visiting officials of the international organization, and the past presidents of the New Castle Quota club at luncheon at noon Saturday.

Program for the dedication of the home, which will take place at two o'clock Sunday afternoon follows:

Opening prayer—Dr. H. C. Weaver, pastor of the First M. E. church.

Song—Mixed Chorus, led by R. E. Johns.

Address—"Quota Ideals," by Dr. Mabel Palmer, president of Quota International, of Davenport, Iowa.

Song—Mixed Chorus.

Dedication—By members of the New Castle Quota Club.

Dedicatory Address—By Rietta M. Emerson, of Wilmington, Del.

Closing Prayer—By the Rev. W. E. McClure, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Husband Kills Wife And Then Commits Suicide

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 27.—Frank Hilton, 55, a mill worker, shot his wife, Cora, 50, to death as they lay in bed at Parkesburg, near here early today, and then turned his revolver on himself, ending his own life.

The couple was spending the night at the home of Mrs. Hilton's father, Taylor Irely, where yesterday they attended the funeral of Mrs. Hilton's mother. No cause could be learned for the double tragedy.

Both were shot through the head, and death was instantaneous in each case.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Oct. 27.—Industrial stock prices were bent downward at the beginning of trading today as the result of a deluge of liquidation and short selling in the speculative leaders. General Motors started the day at a 2-point handicap, with its opening price at 129 reported seventeen minutes after the opening of the market. U. S. Steel, Houston Oil, Texas Gulf Sulphur and Crucible Steel lost 1 to 4 points in the first period.

Both the bankers and the manufacturers, in convention this week, acknowledged the falling off in general production, in price levels and in corporation profits. They attributed it, however, simply to a temporary lull in trade and extreme conservatism in buying characteristic of this stage of the "business cycle". Steel mills of the U. S. Steel Corporation were reported operating at 1½ per cent higher capacity than last week, and the outlook for incoming business brighter. Call money was unchanged at 3½ per cent.

Hollywood Hospitals House These Stars

Hollywood hospital lists in recent weeks might easily be mistaken for motion picture studio rosters. No fewer than eight film stars have undergone operations or suffered minor ailments which necessitated hospital treatment. W. C. Fields suffered a dislocated vertebrae when a truck hit him while on location. Patsy Ruth Miller has parted with her appendix and John McCormick, producer and husband of Colleen Moore, has had his tonsils removed. Jack Holt was operated on for sinus trouble and minor injuries which he received fn falling with his horse. Betty Blythe and Marie Prevost are convalescing from minor operations and Blanche Sweet had to return to the hospital a second time after undergoing a relapse following a minor operation. Adolph Menjou is being treated for stomach trouble.

Race For Presidency Is Under Way Assert Capital Politicians

Start Booms For Curtis And Norris In Grain Belt Districts

Senator Curtis Visits Coolidge, Then Informs Friends Hs Is Candidate Possibility

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—The Republican presidential race for 1928—after marking time since the famous "I-do-not-choose-to-run" statement—was described today by capital politicians as being really under way. It is an eight months run down the stretch to the convention next June.

The open and avowed candidacy of Senator Charley Curtis of Kansas, Republican leader of the senate, has finally convinced the last skeptics that President Coolidge was sincere when he announced that he did not choose to run in 1928. Curtis spent a weekend as a guest of President Coolidge on the Mayflower. In less than forty-eight hours after getting off the yacht he informed his friends in Kansas that he can be considered a candidate. The political railbirds of the capital have drawn their own conclusions from that, and from now on they expect to see candidacies heretofore coy emerge into the sunlight of publicity and activity.

Two Mentioned.

The Curtis candidacy was discussed here today principally from the standpoint of the effect it will have on the candidacy of ex-Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois who has been heretofore considered the grain belt's candidate. Lowden-for-president clubs have sprung up throughout the corn and wheat regions, but this week has seen the grain belt push forward two candidates of its own—Curtis of Kansas, and Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska.

How much these candidacies will affect the Lowden candidacy can only be speculated upon at this stage of the game, but the prevailing political opinion in Washington is that the effect will be considerable. As matters now stand, it is expected that Kansas will be solidly for Curtis, and Nebraska fairly solidly behind Norris.

That both the Curtis and Norris candidacies will draw support from neighboring agricultural states is considered a foregone conclusion. Both voted for the McNary-Haugen bill. Both have agricultural records that are bomb-proof from the standpoint of the Insurgent west. Norris already has been assured the support of a small but influential group of midwest Insurgents such as Brookhart of Iowa, Frazer and Nye of North Dakota, and McMaster of South Dakota. Senator Borah of Idaho has promised to speak for him throughout the west.

Friendly Regard.

Most of the Norris supporters in the senate are friendly to the Curtis candidacy; at least, they regard it favorably. The senate leader is personally about as popular as any man in the senate. He not only is popular among the western agriculturists, but he has the confidence of the eastern industrialist senators as well.

"Should the convention next June get itself tied up as it did in 1920", said one Republican leader, "it might be in the cards that Charles Curtis would be a compromise candidate. Remember Harding was a favorite son in 1920, but he was the compromise-nominee of that convention."

School Teacher Loses Suit For $15,000 Damages

(International News Service)

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 27.—Mrs. Eva M. Crooks, Pittsburgh, school teacher, returned home today, having lost her $15,000 heart balm suit against Dr. Howard Whitehead of Columbus, when a jury returned a verdict of no damages in compliance with instructions from the judge.

The court held that an alleged antinuptial agreement for the division of Dr. Whitehead's property was not binding since it was verbal and not written.

Sharks Attacked Ship Victims, Is Survivor's Tale

One Of Survivors Of Ill-Fated Italian Liner Tells Of Horrors

PANIC FOLLOWED FIRST EXPLOSION

Captain Of Rescue Ship Mosella Tells Of Scenes As Steamer Went To Bottom

(International News Service)

BAHIA BRAZIL, Oct. 27.—Grewsome tales of passengers in shark infested waters were told here today by Antonio Ferreira one of the survivors of the Principessa Mafalda to be landed here.

Ferreira declares that he personally saw a shark attack one man and that the waters about the sinking Italian liner were reddened apparently by the blood of others which had been attacked by sharks.

Ferreira's story was a graphic one of the panic which followed the explosions on board the ship and the consequent rush to the boats on a vessel that was sinking and with all of its lights extinguished.

The captain of the Mosella which brought survivors into this port today also told a graphic tale of commingled courage and stark terror.

In a report to the police the Mosella commander stated that he saw Captain Gugli of he Principessa Mafalda standing on the bridge as his vessel went down and heard him cry out:

"Viva Italia, Viva Patria."

After the vessel sank the Mosella captain said he was unable to find any trace of Captain Gugli.

Horrible Spectacle.

"It was a horrible spectacle when we arrived on the scene" the captain of the Mosella continued. "There wer frantic men, women and children floating all about us. Many women and children seemed to have gone stark mad as they drifted about in the dark night with fairly high waves tossing them about.

"We had received our first S. O. S. on the night of the 25th and speeded to the loccation given and found the vessel already sinking.

"While we stood by and helped in the rescue work the radio officer of the Principessa remained at his post continually sending out S. O. S. messages. The captain of the ship was on the bridge. They stayed on their job until the vessel sank."

Two women, one man and one child were found to be dead when taken aboard the Mosella.

The captain of the Mosella estimates the missing at 400 but his estimates are far beyond those of the Italian embassy in Rio Janeiro and the Brazilian government.

BOLD MOVE IS MADE IN ACTION TAKEN BY MRS. JOHNSON

terest in the work she has offered to pay the entire expense herself.

Thomas Morgan, Chairman.

The chairman of today's meeting in The Castleton was Thomas Morgan, business agent of the Trades and Labor Assembly. In his opening remarks Mr. Morgan said that in the past the union men of the city had felt that they had been overlooked in the Chest Fund drives but that the present organization had demonstrated that they were wanted. He promised the co-operation of the union workmen of the city and said that next year they would be in with a vim.

A feature of today's meeting was a solo sung by Miss Marie Dutkiewicz. Miss Dutkiewicz sang in the Polish language and while not all present could understand the words, they could and did appreciate the sweet voice of the singer. The invocation was pronounced today by Fr. Stancileuski.

Heartened by the announcement of Mrs. Johnson, the workers went out from the meeting today filled with determination to put this drive over and then await the verdict of the survey expert who will come in later.

Wandering Moose Meets Old Army Comrade Here After Twenty Seven Years

After 27 years, two veterans of the Spanish-American War and the Philippine Island campaign, one a resident of this city, the other a resident of Binghampton, N. Y., Wednesday renewed the friendship severed at Guam in the Pacific ocean when the man now residing here completed his term of enlistment in the United States army and left for homeland.

These former veterans, who met again Wednesday after 27 years, are G. E. Whitacre, Baltimore and Ohio engineer, of 2308 Highland avenue, and James B. O'Connors of Binghamton, N. Y., probably better known as the Wandering Moose and V. F. W. hiker. The latter is making the Whitacre home his headquarters during a brief stay in this city.

O'Connor has been making a business of hiking about the country for the past three years in the interest of his health, and in that brief time has visited 38 states and walked more than 16,000 miles.

Dressed in the khaki uniform of the United States soldier, and carrying a heavily laden pack, he has been rewarded with a greatly improved condition of health and a wide experience. He has no coat, just a sweater coat.

His creed is to spread the gospel of good fellowship and fraternalism and seek the betterment of his fellow man. In all his travels he has never asked for a lift, nor has he sought any financial remuneration. He has never commercialized his unusual experiences or his fraternal or veteran affiliations.

Being a member of the Loyal Order of Moose and the Veterans of Foreign Wars, he makes it a point to visit the sessions of these respective organizations wherever he may be stopping. He plans to be at the Mooseheart anniversary celebration of New Castle Moose lodge Thursday night.

He has visited 371 Moose and 338 Veterans of Foreign War lodges and posts in 38 states. He is now en route to San Francisco, Cal., after having attended the Veterans of Foreign Wars convention in Providence, R. I., and the Moose convention in Philadelphia. In the four hikes that he has been engaged in he has traveled on foot a total distance of 1,500 miles within the confines of Pennsylvania.

His next stop of any consquence will be Columbus, O. He is carrying a fetter from Clarence Cook, mayor of Binghampton, N. Y., to the mayor of San Francisco. He states that he has delivered many such messages in his hiking experiences. His first hike was in 1925, when he traveled 7,000 miles in many different states. His second hike was in 1926, when he again traveled 7,000 miles through 11 states. His third hike, one of 2,000 miles, took him through six states. He is now engaged on his most extended hike.

JAMES B. O'CONNORS
Wandering Moose

Mr. Whitacre and O'Connors served in Company H, First United States Regulars, and saw service in Cuba and the Philippines.

ARE YOU a "TOXIC"

A Gripping of the Heart

A sudden gripping of the heart, then a feeling that it has stopped completely—that's a serious sign. Many people today suffer heart trouble as a result of system-poisoning. It comes from our abnormal living habits which put too great a strain upon the "purification" organ, the liver. The liver becoming sluggish and congested fails to cleanse the blood of poisons formed in food waste. The whole system then becomes toxic, with stomach, kidneys, heart and blood vessels affected. The liver, especially at middle life, needs a little help, and there's nothing better for this, as physicians today know, than a little ox gall. Ox gall is a great natural stimulant for the human liver, promoting its normal active functioning, so essential to health and vitality. Dioxol tablets are genuine ox gall in dainty and tasteless form, each tablet representing 10 drops of pure ox gall. They cost less than 2c each at good druggists, and one or two days use will prove itself. To be sure of getting the genuine ox gall, be sure of getting Dioxol.

Plan For World Peanut Exhibit

(International News Service)

AHOSKIE, N. C., Oct. 27.—Plans are being brought to completion here for the world's second annual peanut exposition, and on December 5, and a week henceforward, all eastern Carolina and Tidewater Virginia will pay homage to the lowly goober.

The idea of the peanut exposition was conceived last year, and the first peanut exposition was held at Windsor, N. C. It was then decided to make the exposition an annual affair, and Ahoskie was selected as the place to hold the 1927 exposition.

Tis there seasoned Laughter, will ease up the jar;
Life's varied experience, some burdens must bring,
But, a good hearty Laugh will soon lesson the sting.

Be you stylishly stout, or a willowy thin,
Good-looking, perhaps,—or just average plain kin;
Learn—ed or otherwise—in palace or inn,
At home or abroad—wholesome
Laughter will win.

Then away,—yes, avaunt, ye black
imps of gloom,
Our good friend sound Laughter,
takes up all the room;
So, get out and depart, this, our language is plain,
With gloom, we are losers, with
Laughter, we gain.

All can and should profit, by reading
these lines,
Then away with our grouches, our growls and our whines;
Our share of the sunshine of life, is combined—
With well seasoned Laughter, the spice of mankind.

Roaming Round With Richards

Some News, Some Views, But Mostly Just Observations Of Interesting Things Around New Castle.

Now that The Castleton is open and the various and sundry banquets are out of the way, we can all get back to plain grub and hard work for a while. They had some rather tasty eating parties up at the new hotel, but that banquet on Wednesday night was the eatinest affair one could imagine.

No matter what an appetite you may boast, a 10-course dinner will take the edge off it, and the folks present Wednesday night looked a lot of food in the face. And no matter how many college degrees you may sport, it's the next thing to impossible to carve a squab and look dignified.

Florida is a lovely place, no doubt. But all that sunshine and climate they talk about doesn't make living conditions always. There has to be business and circulation of money, and without them all the climate in the world is thrown for a loss.

Dr. Harry H. Davis and his wife and daughter have returned from Florida convinced that the winter will find Pennsylvania a good place to live. The doctor usually spends his winters in the alligator state and left here in August for his winter home there. After two months there he is convinced that Florida isn't going to be such a much this winter, and has returned.

If the group of girls gathered around the Cathedral last night is any criterion of the pulchritude of the Doll Show, "Punchinello", it's going to be well worth a look. It's worth going to just to get an idea of how many good-looking girls there are in this city.

And it helps out the Quota Club. It must be a poor day when Mrs. H. Snyder or Mrs. H. H. Rosenthal or Mrs. Robert Fleming don't have half a dozen things to do for Quota.

There are some traffic officers in this city that motorists obey implicitly, and these are the school children traffic officers. Any afternoon you want to drive around through the school districts you can see these youngsters directing the flow of traffic. Up in Croton, down on South Mill street, up on Highland, or any of the others. A little lad steps out in the middle of the street with a traffic stop-and-go sign, and for a few minutes he's the king of all he surveys. Did you ever see a motorist who disobeyed one of these youngsters?

"Sleep All Night Now."

Says Penn. Man, "Not Bothered By Bladder Weakness at Night."

A. C. Smith, 41 West Broad St., Bethlehem, Pa., says in his own home paper, the Bethlehem Globe: "I now rise in the morning refreshed and feeling fine. Will gladly tell my experience by words or letter."

Getting up nights for bladder relief is nature's warning of danger ahead. Ultimated Buchu cleanses the bladder as epsom salts do the bowels, driving out abnormal deposits, neutralizes excessive acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes getting up nights. The tablets cost 2 cents at all drug stores. Keller Laboratory, Mechanicsburg, Ohio. Locally at Paisley's Pharmacy.
